INVADERS HAVE MADE GREAT RECORD AND WANT REVENGE ON GUY CHAMBERLAIN AND FRANKFORD

JIMMY ROBERTSON

The Jackets get a chance to topple the Akron club from their tie for the league leadership today, but the task promises to be a tough one.

Akron has not been defeated this season. Kansas City was met and defeated 13-7. Cleveland, the champions, bit the dust to a 7-0 tune. The Canton Bulldogs went under 20-3, and Dayton, a team that gave Frankford oodles of trouble, bowed 17-3.

The league leaders engaged in two tie games, one with Detroit, the outfit with which they are deadlocked for first place honors, and one a scoreless tie with Buffalo.

Akron comes with the record of never having defeated the Yellow Jackets and never having defeated a team coached by Guy Chamberlain. The invaders believe they have the stuff this year to gather sweet revenge.

Akron has the fastest backfield in the league. Jimmy Robertson, former Carnegie Tech quarterback, is a flash and a fine field general. Fritz Pollard, the colored All-American halfback from Brown, is playing the same flashy brand football that caused Walter Camp to pick him for All-American honors.

ranked by Akron players as the greatest line plunger in the game. He weighs 224 pounds. Robertson and Pollard tip the beam at 171 pounds and Annan weighs 184 pounds.

Jim Thorpe, Greatest Player in Grid History, Released by Giants

MOST WONDERFUL ALL-AROUND ATHELETE EVER DEVELOPED RATED HIGHER THAN "RED" GRANGE

Jim Thorpe, the greatest all-around athlete of all time and the greatest backfield man in the history of football, has been released outright by the New York Giants.

Jim immediately grabbed himself another contract, a life-time sentence. He married a girl from South Carolina and now is on his honeymoon.

Thorpe, in the heyday of his fame, was the greatest star in the history of athletics. He could run a hundred yards in 10 seconds, a quarter in close to 50 seconds, a half under two minutes and could make equally creditable showings at the longer distances.

Thorpe could clear more than 6 feet in the high jump and in the running broad jump was a consistent leaper of more than 22 feet. He also was a fine baseball player and an exceptional performer in the basketball cage.

He won the all-round championships at the Stockholm Olympiad, but later returned the prizes when it was discovered that he had previously played professional baseball.

We cite these performances to drive home the fact of just what is meant when it is said that his real forte was football. As great as he was in other sports, Thorpe was greater in football than in the others.

A canvas of football coaches during the past week made by Ten Von Zieghursch, sporting editor of the Daily News, reveals the fact that all but one rate Thorpe higher than Grange.

The one dissenting vote was cast by Lou Young, Penn coach. The others admitted that Grange was a more spectacular ball carrier than Thorpe, but said that he did not measure up to the great Sac in all around backfield ability.

Thorpe could hit the line, run off tackle, skirt the ends and either throw or receive forward passes. He was one of the most consistent ground gainers in the game and in addition was a wonderful defensive back.

Heavier and bigger than Grange, he was admirably adapted to showing interference—a part of the game in which he shone—and in addition was one of the greatest kickers football has ever developed. Thorpe's punts would average close to fifty-five yards, and he kicked more than one drop kick from midfield. The game has lost a wonderful performer.

Pottsville Maroons Play Here Saturday in Important Game

The Pottsville Maroons invade Frankford next Saturday to play what promises to be one of the most interesting and tightest games of the current season.

CHARLES BERRY

The Miners have one of the best teams in the National League. They have dropped one game this season to the Providence Steam rollers, and dropped that without the victors tallying a first down.

A fine tribute to the defensive strength of the up-Staters is the fact that only one first down has been made against them so far this season, Columbus accomplishing the feat last week.

The Maroons also have an exceptional offensive. They showed their worth when they journeyed to Providence, the home of the Steamrollers, and avenged the early season defeat by rolling up a 34-0 score.

Pottsville's offensive is savage. The Miners probably have piled up more first downs than any other team in the National League, and they are among the foremost teams in scoring.

The backfield of Wentz, Latone, French and Ernst functions perfectly. The attacking power is distributed, the backs being able to hit the line, run off tackle and circle the ends. The line, too, is far above the ordinary.

In Charley Berry, from Lafayette, and Eddie Doyle, West Point and Frankford, the invaders have two great ends. Russ Stein is playing great ball at the left tackle post, and Herb Stein is holding down the pivot position in his own finished style.

The game next Saturday will give the winner a clear claim to the eastern championship. In addition to the title and the league standing at stake, the game also arouses great interest because of the heated rivalry between the two elevens.

The clubs met in 1923, the game ending in a scoreless tie. Last year the clubs were unable to get together because Pottsville was in bad standing with the league. The Miners hurled challenges at Frankford, but the local management was unable to schedule them.

The game assumes the same relative importance on the schedule of the two teams as did the Frankford-Holmesburg games of years back.

Write questions and suggestions on one side of paper and send to Marshall Bainbridge, Jr., 4844 Frankford Avenue

Q. How much does Bill Springsteen weigh? From where does he hail? C. H. G.

A. Springsteen weighs 196 pounds. He comes from Lehigh University, where he captained the football team. Last year he played with Shenandoah in the Anthracite League. His home is in Illinois.

Q. Did Tex Hamer or George Sullivan ever play with any other professional football team?—A. R. D.

A. Frankford is the only pro team with which Tex has played. Sullivan played one game with St. Carthage under an assumed name before coming to the Yellow Jackets.

Q. How many Frankford players are college graduates?—W. B.

A. All of them. Hoffman and Haws are taking post graduate courses at the University of Pennsylvania.

Q. Is the Nesser who played with Columbus Panhandlers any relation to any member of the "Fighting Nesser Line"?—B. R.

A. Yes. He is the son of one of the original Nesses, and the nephew of the other six.

Interesting Facts About Players on Yellow Jacket Football Team

THIS YEAR'S SQUAD REPRESENTS COLLEGES IN ALL SECTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES

GUY CHAMBERLAIN: End and coach. An all around athlete at the University of Nebraska. Chamberlain is recognized as one of the greatest ends ever developed at Nebraska. He was All-Western and All-American wingman. Since entering the pro-league, Chamberlain has coached five teams to championships in the circuit.

RUSS BEHMAN: Tackle and captain. Played Lebanon Valley and Dickinson. Was captain at Dickinson. In 1922 Glenn Killinger rated him "the greatest college lineman in the country." A regular ball hawk.

BILL HOFFMAN: Guard from Lehigh University. Bill is the type that gives everything he has on every play, and he has plenty to give.

BILL SPRINGSTEEN: Center and former Lehigh University captain. Has played every position on a football team, but prefers the pivot post.

HARMS: Tackle from Vermont University. Harms plays football because he loves the game and plays it in a fashion none but a fine player and football lover could imitate.

RAY CROWTHER: End from Colgate. Crowther captained the boxing team at his university, also. Ray plays the aggressive type of game one would expect from a boxing captain.

"TWO BITS" HOMAN: Former Lebanon Valley quarterback. Weighs 142 pounds and can and does play football with every pound. A sensational broken field performer and a good field general.

STOCKTON: A back who was rated the most feared man in the Pacific Coast Conference last year, according to the rule book. Runs, kicks and passes equally well. Gonzaga University.

LES HAWS: Former Lower Merion and Dartmouth back. A consistent ground gainer and one of the best-liked backs ever playing for Frankford. Labeled the "Pepper Box" because of his ginger.

TEX HAMER: Former Penn captain and fullback. Tex has the speed to circle an end and the size and punch to hit a line. A consistent ground gainer and a fine defensive back.

SEACRIST: University of Western Maryland lineman. Plays tackle or guard and lives up to the slogan of the French: "They shall not pass."

Frankford Conquers Columbus by 19-0 Score in Spectacular Game

BEHMAN SCORES TWICE AS STOCKTON SHOWS RARE ABILITY AT DIRECTING FORWARD PASS ATTACK

The Columbus Panhandlers came, saw and were conquered to the tune of 19-0 in a National League football game last Saturday.

The game was closely contested and spectacular to the extreme despite the size of the score. Frankford won by its spectacular passing attack and the alertness of its players.

Captain Russell Behman scored two of the touchdowns. The first came after the Jackets worked the ball into scoring range by a wonderful pass from Stockton to Hamer, a pass that gained more than forty yards.

Columbus hedl for downs and got the ball. Chamberlain blocked their attempt to kick out of danger and Behman scooped up the pigskin and crossed the goal line for a six-pointer.

The second touchdown come after some fine work by Stockton and Crowther. Stockton heaved another forty-yard pass. Crowther caught it while in full flight and was downed on the ten yard line. On the next play Stockton threw a short pass to the end and Crowther crossed the line standing up.

The final six-pointer came in the waning minutes of play when Behman speared a Columbus pass and chased forty-five yards to the goal line.

The invaders presented a well-drilled team that fought hard throughout the game to ward off impending defeat. Several players on both teams were injured, so fiercely did the battle wage, but all escaped serious hurts.

The alertness of the Frankford team was typified by Chamberlain and Behman. The big end has developed the happy faculty of blocking opponents' punts just when such plays will do the most good.

His blocked punt last week paved the way for the first touchdown and put the invaders in a position where they were fighting to come from behind instead of battling on even terms.

In addition to his punt blocking activities, Chamberlain also is playing a bang-up all-round game at the wing post.

Chamberlain and Hamer Score as Yellow Jackets Down Buffalo 12-3

FULLBACKS INTERCEPTS PASS AND RUNS 50 YARDS FOR TOUCH-
DOWN AND COACH SCAMPERS 53 YARDS TO TALLY

Two sharp shots rang out and two more Buffaloes bit the dust!

Yep, the Yellow Jackets took the measure of the Bison All-Americans again last Sunday, the scene of the fray being the Buffalo home grounds and the final count being 12-3.

The game was played in four inches of mud, a condition that made a consistent attack almost impossible and swayed victory to the team that could better grasp the opportunity and hold the wet, slippery field.

Tex Hamer broke into the limelight when he intercepted a Buffalo aerial and made a long run through a broken field to the goal line. Hamer's run was a spectacular exhibition of speed, change of pace and dodging ability.

Hamer caught the Buffalo pass near mid-field and his run was for a trifle more than fifty yards.

A few minutes later, Stockton and Chamberlain collaborated in a fifty-three-yard aerial that netted the second touchdown. The pass was a beaut, accurately tossed by Stockton and gathered in by the coach on the dead run. That ended the Frankford scoring.

Chamberlain's men played a strictly defensive game after going into the van, Buffalo having the ball most of the time during the remainder of the game. Several times the Bisons worked the ball into Frankford territory, but each time the Jackets braced and were able to stave off a touchdown. The game marked the eighth victory in nine league games for Frankford.

Buffalo was the first to score, Kendrick knocking over a placement goal for Buffalo in the opening period, after the Jackets had held for three downs on their own five-yard line.

The home club gathered in eight first downs, to three for Frankford, but the difference in downs largely was due to the Frankford defensive game after going into a substantial lead.

More than ten thousand spectators witnessed the game. The Jackets are one of the best attractions around the league circuit and always draw well.

"Push It Over"

"Push It Over" is a frequent cry when our team is nearing the goal. The same could be used as a slogan in all worldly affairs—business, athletics, pleasure or when arranging an outing of old friends. It always takes team-work to "Push It Over." We, here in Northeast Philadelphia will use this slogan in supporting our Yellow Jackets. All Philadelphia residents should use it in strong support of the coming Sesqui-Centennial, an affair which will help to boost our city and keep us in the runnings. Are you giving the Sesqui-Centennial your hearty support? If not you should start now, and "Push It Over."

League Leading Elevens Kept Up Winning Stride Over the Weekend

DETROIT, AKRON, FRANKFORD AND POTTSVILLE MAINTAIN PACE, WITH NEW YORK FINALLY HITTING GAIT

The league leaders maintained their winning stride by winning their Sunday game last week and Frankford crept a fraction of a game nearer to them by annexing two victories, defeating Columbus here on Saturday and Buffalo on Sunday.

The newly organized Detroit club proved that it is no flash in the pan by taking the measure of the strong Hammond, Ind., club by a 26 to 0 count.

Akron remained in the tie with Detroit by humbling the Dayton Triangles, the eleven that gave the Jackets such a terrific run, by a 17 to 3 count. It was the worst defeat of the season for Dayton.

Pottsville also kept pace with the leaders by downing the Panhandlers 20 to 0 in a game during which the visitors had no chance to score, but did ring up the first first down made from scrimmage this year on the team from the Anthracite belt.

The Chicago Cardinals caught a tartar in the Duluth outfit, but when all the precincts were heard from and the votes counted the home club had taken Duluth by a 10-6 count.

Green Bay showed exceptional power and a world of speed in downing the Milwaukee outfit on the home grounds of the Marines. Green Bay looms as a real threat to the best clubs in the league.

New York Giants hit their winning stride after losing their first three league games. Cleveland, the league champions, were downed 19-0 in New York on Sunday and Buffalo but the dust 7-0 on election day. The Giants will bear watching from now on and should win every other game on their schedule.

Providence got back into winning form by taking the measure of the rejuvenated Rochester Jeffersons by the score of 17-0. The Steamrollers have had rocky going in their first year of league football, but have come through with a better team than they started with and the united support of the city of Providence.

Nothing happened during the week to alter the opinion that Frankford and Pottsville stand an excellent chance to fight out between them for the ultimate championship.

The Yellow Jackets face a stiff hurdle this week in playing Akron here today and the Bears tomorrow, but if they are able to escape defeat this week-end will almost automatically become the general favorites to cop the crown.

Rae Crowther has Fine Record as Boxer and Gridiron Player

FRANKFORD END LED COLGATE RING TEAM AND WAS PICKED TO REPRESENT U. S. AT OLYMPIC GAMES

The accompanying picture shows Rae Crowther in costume other than which he appears at the stadium, but a costume in which he made just as fine a reputation as he did in football.

Crowther captained the Colgate boxing team last year and was an inspiring and able leader. So fine a reputation as a boxer did Rae make at college that he was picked as one of the American middleweights to make the trip to France for the Olympic games last year.

Rae also played end on the football team at Colgate and made an eviable reputation as a college wingman. His brother, Saville, captained the gridiron team at Colgate last year.

Rae shows the same brand of aggressiveness on the gridiron that enabled him to go so far in the ring. He plays a rushing game from whistle to whistle, rarely calling for a timeout.

He plays a nice, clean defensive game and offensively rarely fails to do his part to aid the man with the ball. In addition he is showing rare form at nabbing forward passes, his work in that department against the Columbus team being nothing short of phenomenal.

Crowther is fitting in with the Chamberlain system of play in nice style. He and Guy get down the field under punts like a couple of greyhounds, and rarely does the receiver of a Frankford punt get opportunity to get a real start before one or the other of the ends, sometimes both, have nailed him.

BECAUSE organizations such as the Frankford Athletic Association tend to develop a closer bond of sympathy between the residents of the community, develop civic pride and advertise Frankford throughout the entire United States, we are pleased to be represented in this program.

LEGION TO STAGE GRIDIRON
CLASSIC AT YELLOW JACKETS
STADIUM THANKSGIVING MORNING

BOB REMMEY IN ARMY LINEUP

On Thanksgiving morning, Thursday, November 26th, Frankford Post 211, American Legion, will stage a very interesting football game at the Yellow Jacket's Stadium, Frankford Avenue and Devereaux Street. The match will be between the Army and Navy teams and all the players will be members of Frankford Post. Harry Jacoby will captain the Army, while the Navy will be led on the Gridiron by Howard Eisenbach.

"Bob" Remmey the well known star of the Frankford Yellow Jackets of several years ago, will again be seen in action with the Army team, and several of the other players on both teams will be remembered in this vicinity.

There will be no admission charge to the game, but a collection will be taken for the American Legion Endowment Fund which is being used for the war orphans and the disabled buddies. The game will be called promptly at 10 A. M. and everyone should attend and assist in this wonderful cause, besides witnessing a very good contest between the two everlasting rivals, the Army and the Navy.

Coach Guy Chamberlain, of the famous Frankford Yellow Jackets, and members of his team will be on the field and act as officials.

EXCHANGES SHOW THAT THE GAME IS MEETING WITH KEENER INTEREST THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE CIRCUIT

Akron is going to have its hands full over the week end as the Neidmen tackle two of the strongest clubs in Joe Carr's circuit. Saturday, Akron invades Philadelphia while Sunday Pollard & Co. perform in Pottsville.

The Philadelphia Yellow Jackets, following their game in Frankford Saturday with Akron, hustle aboard a train for Chicago where they will clash with the Chicago Bears. This will be some intersectional encounter.

After traveling around the circuit for about six weeks, Kansas City will open at home with Duluth as the attraction. Doc Andrews has been making several changes in his battle front and hopes to chalk up a victory.

The Canton Bulldogs are billed to entertain the Cleveland club. There is little love lost between these aggregations and it should be a thrilling combat. The Bulldogs came out of their Steubenville, O., game in good shape.

Columbus hopes to break its string of wins this Sunday at the expense of New York at the Polo Grounds. The Tigers look as good as any club in the league on paper but they have dropped six successive engagements.

Business at the gate hasn't been any too good at Rock Island this season and the club owners are threatening to close up shop at home and go traveling unless there is a bumper throng at Sunday's game with Hammond.

The Providence fans will get a chance Sunday to give the Buffalo eleven the once over. The Bisons are not credited with many victories this season but, just the same, it is a powerful aggregation of footballers.

Twoofthe higher-up elevens will match their gridiron skill at the White Sox park in Chicago when the Cardinals and Green Bay Packers lock horns. Each of these clubs are blessed with a great forward pass attack.

Billy Gibson's Giants are getting a fine reception from the football colony in New York. The Giants have played before 45,000 spectators in their two starts at home. Pro football sure is popular along Broadway.

The veteran Jim Thorpe, released by New York, has joined the Rock Island team. Thorpe played against the Bears last Sunday but was off color and Manager Johnston pulled him out of the lineup early in the contest.
