What do YOU think of it?

The NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS would like to know what, in your mind, stamps League football as played here in the Polo Grounds superior to any other brand of football played throughout the country.

Therefore, the Management invites you to write a letter, not to exceed two hundred and fifty words, stating what it is about the game, or any outstanding event in some past contest, that has caused your opinion in favor of the League game.

Address all letters to New York Football Giants, 44 East 23rd Street, New York, N. Y. Please write your name and address plainly.

The writers of the ten best opinions will be given a season pass for all home games of the Giants in the 1933 season.

Contest will close immediately after the Stapleton game in the Polo Grounds, Sunday, Nov. 13th, and all letters must be received at the Giants' office not later than Nov. 17th.

Winners will be announced during the Green Bay Packers' game on Sunday, Nov. 20th.

SPECIAL NOTE.—National Football League games this season are played under the same rules that governed 1931 play with but two exceptions. Of the many changes made in the college rules only two proved acceptable to the professional circuit. One is that providing for substitutions every quarter instead of once a half. The other change was that in equipment making hard pads illegal. National League officials were of the opinion that the rules as they stood in 1931 needed no changes and felt also that football followers would like to see the code as it stood given a more thorough trial before extensive alterations.

My Song!

Each Fall my joy is without bounds
On Sundays at the Polo Grounds,
For when our FOOTBALL GIANTS play,—
Just try and keep this guy away!
Now, I've seen Harvard, near Back Bay,
I've hied myself to Ioway,
I've been down south to Tennessee,
I've seen a Rose Bowl jamboree;
In fact, I've been from coast to coast
And I'll insist that it's no boast
To say the games which most appealed
Were those played here on our pro field.
My roving football days are o'er,—
Most stars, I find, play at my door!
As I look through the haze of years,
That heap big Injun, Thorpe, appears;
Brick Muller, Nevers (Stanford's pride),
Then Hinkey Haines and Jack McBride;
Red Grange, Chris Cagle and Dutch Clark,—
Each one of these a football shark!
Too, Benny Friedman and Ken Strong,
But listing all would prove too long.
I'll tell the world I'll ne'er forget
That time the Yanks and GIANTS met
Upon a day which was replete
With slush and snow and blinding sleet.
I don't suppose I'll ever see
A contest waged more bitterly,
For there, upon a turf atrocious,
The play was what you'd call ferocious;
But what amazed me most of all
Was both teams' handling of the ball,
For during the entire fray
Not once did that ball slip away!
In League games only, you'll agree,
Does one find such proficiency.

YES, ON SUCH GAMES I REALLY DOTE,
SO PRO LEAGUE FOOTBALL GETS MY VOTE!

NEVER PARCHED — NEVER TOASTED

CAMELS are always FRESH!

SWITCH to Camels and learn the mildness of a fresh, cool-burning cigarette. A blend of choice Turkish and mellow, sun-ripened Domestic tobaccos, Camels are never parched or toasted. That's why we say smoke them for one day, then leave them—if you can.
