GIANTS TAKE TO ROAD

The New York Giants will not return to the Polo Grounds for three weeks following the engagement with the Chicago Bears today. However you will not have to miss the National League champions in action. The Giants next Sunday will travel over to Ebbets Field to face the revamped and determined Brooklyn Dodgers.

After that tussle the Giants are scheduled to go out to Detroit to face the undefeated Lions, who are setting the pace in the Western Division race at the present time. Both of these fields have long been jinx spots for the Giants. The New Yorkers have been tied in their last two trips to Ebbets Field and in four trips to Detroit since 1934 the Giants have yet to return with a victory.

If the Giants can get by these two engagements away from home they will be in a good spot to battle the Redskins down to the finish line for the Eastern Division title. Following the two games away from home the Giants come back here for four straight engagements opening on Sunday, Nov. 12, with the Chicago Cardinals headed by Marshall Goldberg, Pitt's great all-America back.

After the Cardinals the Pittsburgh Pirates, the Brooklyn Dodgers and last of all the Washington Redskins will encounter the New York eleven on the home field.

GOLDBERG LEADS CARDINALS

The New York Giants are in for tough sledding the next two weeks on the road facing the Dodgers at Ebbets Field and the undefeated Detroit Lions in Detroit, but there is no letup in sight for them on the return home.

The Chicago Cardinals under the leadership of Ernie Nevers, former All-America and All-League back, will move into the Polo Grounds on Sunday, November 12, and it promises to be a busy afternoon for Steve Owen's boys.

The Cardinals gave the Giants their hardest battle of the season last fall when it took a last minute touchdown by Tuffy Leemans to nose them out 6 to 0 after the Chicago outfit had outplayed the New Yorkers.

The current Cardinal array is more powerful than that of a year ago, boasting as it does the addition of Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, Pitt's famous All-America back who is no stranger to the Polo Grounds.

MARSHALL GOLDBERG
All-American Back

In addition to Goldberg they have another great All-American of last season, Ky Aldrich of T. C. U. who is rated as the best center in the western division at the current time.

Two former members of Fordham's Seven Blocks of Granite, Al Barbat-sky and Mike Kochel, are playing in the Cardinal forward wall.

Also in the Cardinal lineup is Bill Smith, all-league end who is currently setting the pace as the leading pass catcher of the circuit and also rates highly among the field goal kickers of the league. Smith is a great target for Jimmy Robbins, former Arkansas passer who is one of the best sharpshooters of the circuit; Frank Patrick, another one of Pitt's former all-American aces, is also in the Cardinal backfield.

Tickets for the Cardinal-Giant game will be placed on sale Monday, November 6, in the New York Giants office, 11 West 42nd Street.

FILCHOCK SETS MARK

For the second straight week a National Football League individual record was broken when Frank Filchock, Washington forward passing ace, threw a touchdown pass to Andy Farkas good for a 99 yard gain against Pittsburgh. The previous mark was made last year when a Douglass Russell to Gaynell Tinsley aerial gained 98 yards against Cleveland.

John Drake, Cleveland Rams hard-hitting fullback, became the week's only new pacesetter when he tallied six points against Detroit. This gave him a season's scoring total of 36 points. This dislodged Bill Smith, Chicago Cardinals end, from the leadership. Smith has 34 points; Joe Mantel, Chicago Bears, 31; Jim Benton, Cleveland, and Bill Osmanski, Bears, 30 each, to keep within striking distance of Drake.

There is a three-way tie for pass receiving. Smith, Perry Schwartz, Brooklyn, and Vic Spadaecini, Cleveland, each have caught 15. Mantel and Osmanski continue to run one-two for ground-gaining laurels with 379 and 332 yards respectively. Dave Smukler, Philadelphia, is third with 218 yards.

Parker Hall, Cleveland rookie from Mississippi; Ace Parker, Brooklyn, and Bernie Masterson, Chicago Bears, remain the three best passers of the circuit. Frank Filchock, Washington, completed 6 out of 7 Sunday after completing 8 out of 8 the previous week to bring his total completions to 18 out of 26 tosses for 69% efficiency. Masterson's five touchdown passes lead the circuit, while Jack Robbins, Cardinals, has thrown four scoring aeriels.

Five players are tied for field-goal kicking with two each. They are Jack Manders, Bears; Bill Smith, Cardinals; Hank Reese, Philadelphia, and Ken Strong and Ward Cuff, New York. Reese last Sunday kicked one 43 yards, the longest of the season. Dave Smukler, Philadelphia, has the best punting average—49 yards from scrimmage in ten kicks. Twenty-three players in the National League have kicked the ball fifty or more yards this season.

TEAM RECORDS SHATTERED

One National Football League team record was broken by the Washington Redskins and another tied by the Chicago Bears as these fast moving aggregations continued to pace the circuit to new heights in offensive achievement in the fifth week of play.

Washington, by scoring 44 points against Pittsburgh, became the first team in league history to tally over forty points in two consecutive games. The record books show that only four times in the past four seasons have National League teams scored 40 or more points in one game.

The Bears also tallied 44 points Sunday as they gained 408 yards. It is the third time this season that the high-geared Chicagoans surpassed four hundred yards in one game. The Bears have 157 points and Washington has 92 for first and second in league scoring. New York is the best defensive team in the league. Opponents have scored only 20 points, while Detroit is tied with the Giants in allowing only 674 yards.

PRO RULES

There are differences in rules for games played in the National Football League and under intercollegiate rules. We would like to call your attention to these major differences:

1. The goal posts are on the goal line (not ten yards back).
2. Forward passes are permitted from any point to the line of scrimmage (not thrown from five yards behind line).
3. The penalty for a forward pass thrown beyond the line of scrimmage is loss of down and five yards from the spot such pass is made.
4. A forward pass on fourth down is not a touchback if it goes over the goal line providing the pass originated outside the 20-yard line. In other words if the pass was thrown from the 25-yard line on fourth down it reverts to the defending team at that point.
5. On a kickoff the receiving team is not required to have five players within five yards of the restraining line. Kickers are permitted to use tees in making kickoffs.

6. The penalty for clipping is 25 yards (not 15).
7. The ball is not dead when the runner touches the ground unless definitely in the grasp of an opponent and all forward progress stopped.
8. Substitutes may talk to teammates immediately on entering game.
9. Any two players of either team may re-enter the game once in the fourth quarter.
10. When a penalty is inflicted inside the 10-yard line it shall be only half the distance to the goal line.
11. A fumbled ball which strikes the ground may be advanced by an opponent when he recovers it.
12. On out of bounds kickoffs the ball is put in play on the 45-yard line (not the 35-yard line).

MANIACI RUNS WILD

Joe Maniaci, former Fordhamite, is setting a terrific pace in ground gaining for the Bears. The big ex-Ram has piled up 379 yards in five games to top his mates in ball carrying and also leads the league although Bill Osmanski, newowner from Holy Cross, is not far behind with 352 yards. The two are over 100 yards ahead of their nearest rivals in the circuit.

Bernie Masterson is the top passer of the Bears and one of the top three in the league. He has completed five for touchdowns and 27 out of 54 for 556 yards. Sid Luckman with an average of 41 yards is the most dependable Bear punter.

LEEMANS TOPS GIANTS

Tuffy Leemans is the leading ground gainer of the New York Giants with 189 yards in 60 attempts, a figure which places him sixth among the ball carriers of the league. Len Barnum his running mate in the second period backfield is the only other Giant to gain over 100 yards.

Eddie 'Muscles' Miller, rookie back, has the best passing mark with 9 in 16 passes completed for 128 yards, one for a touchdown. Ed Danowski after a slow start has been creeping back to his record percentage of 50% and now has 14 in 32 passes completed, two for touchdowns. Miller in addition to his passing feats has averaged 43 yards in punting.

GIANTS ON PARADE

For the first time since the Giants started representing New York in the National Football League a band has been organized to help round out your day's enjoyment.

Under the direction of Russell Wooding this 50 piece band which you will see play and maneuver today has been drilling for more than a month.

It is the hope of the Giants' management that this band will be as outstanding as the team has been on the field. To achieve that aim improvements will continue to be made as the season progresses.

Russell Wooding, Director of the Band, has written the words for the new Giant swing march which will be played this afternoon.

Giants on Parade

Words by Russell Wooding,
Director New York Giants band.

Football on parade—

The GIANTS—the GIANTS

The NEW YORK GIANTS

History they've made—

The GIANTS—the GIANTS,

The NEW YORK GIANTS:

They've got a winning spirit

They play the game for all that's in it

Never be dismayed,

Whene'er the GIANTS are on parade.

"SEAGRAM'S ('39) WINS"

says HAM FISHER

THE POPULAR CARTOON-IST who draws "Joe Palooka," comparing Crowns of 1939 with Crowns of 1934, said emphatically: "Your present Crown Whiskey is the finest Seagram ever made!"

"AMERICA'S FINEST"

TASTE CROWNS NOW. You'll agree with Ham Fisher. Every year Seagram spends millions to make Crown Whiskies taste finer, smoother, more delicious. Try Seagram's now!—drink "America's Finest."
