Cleveland Rams Are Next

THE New York Giants will be away from the Polo Grounds next Sunday but return to the home field on the following Sunday, November 10, to meet the resurgent

Cleveland Rams, who tumbled the Green Bay Packers out of their berth at the top of the western division race last week.

The Giants next Sunday will meet the powerful Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field in the first clash with Dr. John Bain Sutherland's charges since the former Pitt mentor took over the coaching reins of the team across the river. This Ebbets Field trip has always been a tough one on the Giants and it looks especially tough this season since the Dodgers have won both their the home starts on field.

And you can bet that the Dodgers are all set for our Giants too since it has been ten lean years since the Brooklyn eleven last registered a victory over a New York eleven although there have been several deadlocks in the interborough series.

Unfortunately the Giants must also look ahead to the clash with the Rams the following week and after that in quick succession the invasion by the Green Bay Packers, Washington Redskins and the concluding tussle with the Dodgers.

It is a tough schedule facing the Giant array and the Rams look to be as tough as any team in the list right now. Coached by Dutch Clark, one of the National League's greatest quarterbacks when he played for Portsmouth and Detroit, the Rams have a high scoring array that is always dangerous.

Heading the threatening Ram backfield is Parker Hall, former Mississippi All-America ace, who last fall was voted the outstanding player of professional football. Hall is showing no signs of a letdown in the sensational play which saw him set three new national league passing records last fall when the Rams wound up the season winning five of the last six games on the schedule. It was Hall who tossed two scoring passes to defeat Green Bay last Sunday and so far this season he has completed 35 aerials to gain 558 yards and is right among the aerial leaders.

In addition the former Mississippi ace is within eight yards of topping Whizzer White of Detroit, Banks McFadden of Brooklyn and Tuffy Leemans as the leading ground gainer of the league. Hall has picked up 238 yards, averaged 4.4 yards per try and so is just about the most dangerous triple threater the Giants have yet faced this season. Back Hall up with the sensational powerhouse Johnny Drake, former Purdue star, who is also among the top ground gainers and you have enough to know why Coach Steve Owen is really worried about the Cleveland Rams.

If you have not secured your season reserved seats and want to secure a seat for this game there will be tickets on sale today in the Exchange window at the rear of Section 16 in the lower stand. You can secure tickets for next Sunday's game at Ebbets Field from the Dodgers office, 215 Montague Street, or without extra charge at any Western Union office in greater New York.

Scoring in the National Football League has reached an average of 31 points a game, the highest in history, according to team statistics for the first half season released today. In five games Surday there were 166 points tallied, an average of 37 a game, bringing the season's total in 28 contests to 868 points. Washington and Green Bay and the Chicago Bears are leading the circuit with 147, and 113. Last year the major pro leaguers tallied an average of 30 points a game for the fifty-five game schedule to set a new all-time high. A survey of 205 college teams in the country last season showed the college average to be 13 points a game.

Washington now has a clean sweep in offensive play. In addition to leading in scoring, the Redskins overtook Green Bay in ground gaining and remained the best forward passing unit. They have gained 1687 yards to 1630 for the Packers. The Bears are third with 1419 yards and Brooklyn fourth with 1341.

Sammy Baugh and Frank Filchock have completed 73 passes out of 116 thrown for a 62% efficiency average—three per cent better than a week ago. They are only two completions away from Philadelphia's 75 out of 176 tosses. Green Bay took third place in passing with 65 completions in 148 throws.

New York and Detroit share defensive honors. Detroit has allowed only 45 points in six games while the Giants are tied with the Cardinals in pass defense (only 36% completed against them) and have allowed opponents only 829 yards.

The captain of this team is a smart apple.

He knows there's nothing under the sun that quenches thirst...cools...refreshes...and picks you up more pleasantly than Canada Dry-"the Champagne of Ginger Ales."

Is there any reason why you shouldn't have some, too? Why wait till you get home? Call the vendor...or head for a refreshment stand, and enjoy this "gingervating" treat right now!

CANADA DRY "THE CHAMPAGNE OF GINGER ALES!"

"Yep—I switched brands.

Raleighs not only taste better,
but I go for those premiums!"

THERE'S a lad who gets his full money's worth out of smoking. How about you? When you switch to Raleighs you get an expert blend of not just six or a dozen kinds of tobacco, but thirty-one choice grades of the finest Turkish, Virginia and Burley crops. Each tobacco plays an important part in the flavor, body or smoothness of the final blend. Yet Raleighs cost no more than any other popular-priced brand, and come with plain ends or cork tips.

And here's the second "money's worth" feature. There's a golden coupon on the back of the pack good in the United States for cash, or even greater value in luxury premiums. Write for the premium booklet that describes all the things to save for. Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation, P.O. Box 599, Louisville, Kentucky.

Cuff Tops in Two Specialties

Ward Cuff, leading field goal kicker of the National Football League for the past two seasons, is back at the top of the heap in his specialty again tied for the leadership with Clarke Hinkle, Green Bay veteran, each with four three-pointers along with Armand Niccolai, Pittsburgh tackle and kicking specialist.

Cuff in addition to his field goal exploits is tied for point getting honors with three other players, all of them at 30 points. Don Looney, rookie end of the Philadelphia Eagles; Carl Mulleneaux, husky end of the Green Bay Packers; and Dick Todd, flashy running back of the Washington Redskins, have all scored 30 points. Cuff has led the Giants in scoring for the past three seasons and seems well on his way to repeat. As a matter of fact Cuff has now scored 149 points for the Giants in league competition and needs but five more to pass Dale Burnett, to take second place in the all-time scoring list.

The four field goals booted by Cuff this season have enabled the stellar wing back to pass Ken Strong as the best field goal kicker the Giants have had in sixteen years of National League competition. Cuff has booted 19 in all, or one more than Strong scored.

The race for ground gaining honors in the league is the closest in its history. There are four players within nine yards of each other at the top headed by Whizzer White of Detroit. Banks McFadden has fallen to second place with 240 yards, seven behind White. Tuffy Leemans is just a yard behind McFadden while Parker Hall of Cleveland is just another yard shy of Leemans' mark of 239 yards.

Sammy Baugh is setting an unprecedented pace in the struggle for aerial honors averaging .716 on his passes and gaining 814 yards. The Washington Redskin flinger has completed 58 of 81 passes, eight of them for touchdowns, and only had two intercepted. Davey O'Brien of Philadelphia has completed 62 but thrown 143 and gained only 629 yards.

Miller and Nielsen Climbing

Eddie Miller and Walt "Horse" Nielsen, tailbacks of the starting New York Giants backfield, have been setting a fast pace in their recent games and strangely enough have each gained exactly the same yardage in rushing the ball. Miller and Nielsen with 147 yards are second to Tuffy Leemans among the Giants ground gainers.

Miller is top passer for the Giants with a 50% average completing 14 in 28 attempted aerials for 246 yards, two of them for touchdowns. Eddie also has credit for two of the eleven passes the giants have intercepted this season.

Ward Cuff tops several departments. The stellar wingback has caught seven passes to gain 116 yards tops in that specialty. His four field goals make him the best place kicker of the squad and his 30 points is best point-getting effort among the Giants.

Bears in Close Race

Five Chicago Bears backs are over the 100-yard mark in ground gaining and all are within striking distance of the top in the league race. There are only 24 yards separating the top three, Gary Famiglietti, Joe Maniaci and George McAfee, all over the 150-yard mark in five games.

Sid Luckman, former Columbia ace, is the best passer so far with 16 completed in 42 attempts for 331 yards. Ken Kavanaugh, former L.S.U. pass snatcher, tops the receivers with six catches good for 126 yards.

George McAfee, sensational rookie from Duke, has an exceptional punting average, having punted ten times for an average of 55 yards from the line of scrimmage, even better than Luckman's average of 53 yards. McAfee is also the top scorer of the visiting team today with three touchdowns for 18 points. Nine Bear players have scored touchdowns so far this season, showing the balance and versatility of the Bear attack.

Difference in Rules Between Professional and Collegiate Football

The National Football League Rules Committee has made several changes in the rules for 1940, the most important of which reduces the penalty for clipping from 25 yards to 15 yards. Another important change prevents a team, incurring a penalty, from being penalized more than half the distance to the goal when the penalty is enforced in the field of play.

In professional football, the goal posts are on the goal lines; in collegiate, ten yards back of the goals on the end lines.

In professional football, passes may be thrown from any point behind the line of scrimmage. In collegiate football, they must be thrown from any point at least five yards behind the line of scrimmage.

Professional football does not recognize the "dead ball" rule. In collegiate football if any portion of the ball-carrier's body, excepting his hands or feet, touches the ground the ball is dead at that point. This is not so in professional football.

In professional football the defensive team may recover and advance the ball on fumbles, except where α backward pass has been attempted, or α punt is being received.

Flying blocks and flying tackles are permitted in the professional game.

Professional substitute players may communicate with their team mates immediately upon entering the game. College players must wait one play before communicating.

In professional football no penalty can be more than half the distance to the goal, instead of to the one-yard line.

In professional football defensive players are permitted wider latitude in the use of open hands on opposing players' necks and head without penalty. This rule prohibits striking but does allow the use of hands to force offensive blockers off balance.

In professional football a team is allowed to substitute in the fourth quarter only at the most three players who have previously played in the same quarter. This is not allowed under college rules.

1940 FOOTBALL LOOKS TO Ted Husing...

The coach who fails to develop wide open football this year will wonder why he gets the bumps. The fans, the players, and the game demand it wide open.

Georgia Tech revealed the success of hocus-pocus spins and reverses. Harvard spotlighted faking from the fullback position. Minnesota has an amazing single wing with a jackrabbit wingback. Southern California pulverizes from cutbacks and delayed bucks. The Rockne basic shift and drive have been converted into lightning thrusts at the line, short swift passes and thrilling cutsin-and-out.

Keep your eyes open. Watch for "basketball" football in 1940 and more thrills than the game has ever packed!

Thank you, Ted Husing! You know the game as few men know it because you live with it. But we who get our joy from watching it know our whiskey! We know Seagram's 5 Crown. It's our after-the-game favorite every time! HERE'S HOW!

TO BE SURE OF YOUR WHISKEY

BE SURE it's milder and more flavorful...a blend of quality with authority.
