MAJOR FRANK W. CAVANAUGH
Memorial Day

The Late
Major FRANK W. CAVANAUGH
Beloved Soldier, Lawyer and Coach

The very name of Cananaugh
Still fills my inmost soul with awe,
For Cav was by the Lord endowed
To stand apart from all the crowd.
A soldier, coach and pal was he
With boundless personality.—
A leader who in peace and war
Just gave and gave, then gave some more,
Until, at last, it was decreed
That Heaven, too, was much in need
Of one possessed of gifts so rare
And therefore summoned him up there
To aid the one great Referee
Right down into eternity;

But here below, we'll never have
A grander guy than good, old Cav.

By Thos. J. McCarthy.

Major Frank W. Cavanaugh

Nothing we could write about Major Frank Cavanaugh would so adequately disclose his true character as this letter written to his son, Dave, back in 1918, when the former Fordham coach was an artillery lieutenant on the French battlefield.

"Somewhere in France.

"Dear Davie Boy:—

"Your good mother writes me that you have a chum and she says he is a fine boy who lives next door. Isn't that fine.

"I wish I had a chum. You and your mother used to be my chums, and sometimes Joe and Billy, and even dear little Rose Marie and Phil, too, when he was home; but now that is all changed and I have no chum in all the world. I think it's rather sad sometimes, don't you, but I have your picture which I take down and talk to when I am lonesome.

"I am happy to know that you like your new school and home, and I'm sure you'll play with clean boys who don't do anything very bad and who also like to go to school.

"Didn't we used to have great times together, and wasn't it fun when you'd come up to the car to meet me? Then when you saw me getting off, do you remember how you'd hide behind a tree and run up behind me and scare me after I had passed? And do you remember how sometimes you and I would race and you were getting so you could run so fast that you could beat me sometimes, for you were getting to be a great big boy?

"And then we'd all go down to see the circus and the parade and hold hands so we couldn't get separated or lost. And then Christmas! Oh, wasn't that a wonderful day? Early in the morning how we'd all rush down stairs to see our presents!

"And then poor, tired mother would work and work to give all you boys and girls a Christmas dinner—turkey, cranberry sauce, and dressing and plum pudding, and candy and nuts and everything.

Christmas Without Old Cav.

"Oh, Dave, did any little boy ever have such a good mother as yours, I wonder. And now you are soon to have another Christmas and old Cav won't be home. But I want you to have the finest time you ever had on that day, so that I may be happy over here thinking of you all. I wish I knew some little boys and girls over here, so that I might talk to them and hold their hands, and I would call them my boys' and girls' names and pretend I was home.

"The other night I had a lovely dream and I was so disappointed when I awoke. I dreamed I was sitting in our kitchen, with mother and David and all the children, and a chair which was tilted back against the wall slipped and I fell gently, and without hurting me, to the floor.

"And then mother and you and all the children laughed and laughed, just like good naughty folks. And you came over and took my hand and lifted me up easily. Isn't that funny, Dave? Think of my boy lifting a big, fat father like me from the floor with one hand!

"Then we laughed some more and suddenly I remembered that it was after nine o'clock. I said, 'Why, children, what are you doing out of bed at this hour of the night?'

"And you said, 'Why, it isn't very often that our father goes away to war, so we thought we'd stay up and say goodbye.'

* * *

It Was Only a Dream

"And then I was so surprised to learn that I hadn't gone away to war yet, that I suddenly awoke only to find myself in my little, lonely barracks with the rain coming down hard outside, and I was lonesome for my dear family.

"But now, David, old boy, everyone is in bed but me, trying to get lots of strength and health for the big fights we will soon be in, so I must do likewise and end this letter to you.

"You must always remember that your father came into this great war for the sake of all little children, and I know that you will, while I am gone, take good care of mother and all the children. I can see you growing up tall and straight, with shoulders back and head up, because that's what old Cav wants, and you love Cav, don't you, Davie boy? Dave, will you do something real nice for me? Will you kiss mother and Annie and Billie, Rose Marie and John, for Cav and send one to Philip in Maine?

"Excuse me, David, for writing in pencil instead of ink, but ink is hard to get.

"The lights are going out in a few minutes, so goodnight, goodbye, Dave, and God bless you.

"From your old man,

"CAV."

In all instances other than in the exceptions noted herein the rules of the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association are to be followed.

KICK-OFF AND FREE KICK

1. The receiving team may line in any position beyond the ten yard restraining line.
2. It is permissible for the kicking team to use a natural tee made from the soil in the immediate vicinity of the point of kick-off.

FLYING BLOCK AND TACKLE

The flying block and flying tackle are permitted.

FORWARD PASS

The passer may pass the ball from any point behind the line of scrimmage.

TIME OUT

Officials must notify the captain of each team when time has been out three (3) times—and no penalty is to be imposed for additional time out unless such notice has been given.

DEAD BALL

In Rule 7—Section 7—Article (1a) of the Intercollegiate rules omit the words “when any portion of his person except his hands or feet touches the ground.”

PERSONAL FOULS

Use of hands—in Rule 10—Section 2—Article 1—Item 2 of the Intercollegiate Rules, omit the words “players on defense may not strike the opponent on the head, neck, or face with the palms of their hands.”

CLIPPING

The penalty for clipping shall be 25 yards—officials shall enforce this rule to the letter.

GOAL POST

The goal posts shall be placed on the goal-line instead of ten yards beyond.

IT TAKES
HEALTHY NERVES
TO FLY THE MAIL
AT NIGHT!

● A. M. WILKINS has flown the night air mail over 150,000 miles for TWA. It takes healthy nerves to hang up a record like that!

● WILKINS joins a fellow pilot, W. Niedernhofer, at Newark Airport, for a chat and a smoke. "Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves," Wilkins says.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. They are milder, richer in flavor. They never tire your taste or get on your nerves.

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

A. M. WILKINS, air-mail ace, says: "It's a steady grind, all right, living up to our tradition that the mail must go through! That's why I smoke Camels. And I smoke plenty! Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves, and I like their mild, rich flavor."

Camels never tire the taste—never get on the nerves. Your taste and your nerves will confirm this. Start smoking Camels today and prove it for yourself.
