Foreword

GIANTS WELCOME THE ELKS

The management and players cordially extend a warm welcome to those Elks from lodges throughout the Greater City who are herded here this afternoon.

Elks day was originally scheduled for last Sunday when the Brooklyn Lions were all set to invade the Polo Grounds, but unfortunately the weather man was in one of his worst moods and a great downpour of rain made the game unplayable for both contestants and spectators. Despite the unfavorable weather, nearly five hundred Elks braved the elements to come to the Polo Grounds.

The extra week has materially increased the enthusiasm of the Elks for their special day and in the assemblage here this afternoon are big delegations from lodges in New York and the Metropolitan District.

It is the wish of the Giants Management that every Elk will thoroughly enjoy this afternoon's game.
