Yellow Jackets are Next

The Yellow Jackets of Frankford are known wherever football is played. For fifteen years Frankford, on the edge of Philadelphia, has been gathering former college players and moulding them into a powerful machine. This season the Yellow Jackets have reorganized their eleven with impressive players and have pointed particularly for the traditional battle with the New York Giants.

When the Yellow Jackets travel they are followed by a big slice of Frankford's populace. There is a community spirit behind the team that would be difficult to match elsewhere.

Not only will the Yellow Jackets be supported by thousands of loyal rooters and six snappy cheer leaders, but the famous Frankford band and fife and drum corps, Pennsylvania American Legion champions, will be on hand to furnish music for friend and foe alike. The colorful drill of the Frankford Fife and Drum Corps on previous occasions has made a big hit with Polo Grounds fans.
