BEARS LEADING GAINERS

The Chicago Bears lead the National League in ground gaining with 1,549 yards in four games. Detroit has held the opposition to 733 yards gained for defensive laurels, and the Packers have had only 26 points scored against them.

The New York Giants, 1934 Champions and present League leaders, gained three per-cent in passing efficiency over last week to continue as leader in this department with 26 completed out of 57 for an average of 45%. The Packers have completed the most passes, a total of 42 in 112.

BEARS BACKS IMPROVE STANDING

Four new men gained places among the first ten ground gainers and point scorers of the National Football League in the sixth week of play. Gene Ronzani, of the Chicago Bears and Marquette, who plays here next Sunday, jumped from third to second in the ground gaining race. Norman Franklin and Ralph Kercheval, Brooklyn Dodgers, Reds Pollock, Bears, and Dougal Russell, Chicago Cardinals, were the players who took their places among the first ten in offensive listings.

Ernie Caddel, Detroit Lions and formerly of Stanford, has undisputed leadership as the league's best ball carrier with 297 yards in 39 attempts. Ronzani is second, and Earl "Dutch" Clark, Detroit, is third. Caddel also tied Dale Burnett, New York Giants and Emporia, for high scoring honors, with 30 points. Reds Pollock is tied with Luke Johnson, his Bears teammate, for second with 24 points.

John Blood and Don Hutson, Green Bay Packers, Charlie Malone, Boston, and Luke Johnsons are the best pass receivers, each having caught 9. Ed Danowski, Giants, is still unsurpassed in the forward passing lead with 22 completed out of 45.

RULES OF MAJOR LEAGUE FOOTBALL SUMMARIZED BY WILFRID SMITH

Professional football, in the past three seasons, has altered the code of rules under which colleges and universities play the game. The changes have not been numerous but they have been important.

The most important change permits forward passes to be thrown from any point behind the scrimmage line. The college rule permits forward passes from any point FIVE yards behind the scrimmage line.

In professional football the goal posts are on the goal lines.

Professional football declined to adopt the "dead ball" rule of the collegiate code.

Flying blocks and flying tackles are permitted in the professional game. The professional rule against clipping, that is, knocking down an opponent from the rear, is strictly enforced. The penalty is loss of 25 yards, as compared with the collegiate rule which penalizes infractions with the loss of 15 yards.

Professional players may be stationed any place on the field so long as they do not advance within 10 yards of the ball before it is kicked.

At the kickoff, the pros may kick from a dirt tee.

Substitute players may communicate with their teammates immediately on entering the game. Coaches must be notified when the limit of three times out have been taken in a half.

When the ball carrier is run out of bounds or is tackled at any point within 15 yards of the side line, the ball will be placed in play at a corresponding point 15 yards from the side of the field.

Offside penalties on the defense within its own 10 yard line have been minimized. Instead of loss of five yards, customary rule, the penalty in this area now is half the distance to the goal.

Here are the two most important changes in the pro rules for this fall:

1. A fumbled ball, except fumbles resulting from lateral passes, may be advanced by either team, no matter whether the ball strikes the ground or not. On fumbled laterals, the rule remains the same. The offense may recover and advance; the defense only may recover unless the ball is caught in the air. Then it may be advanced. Fumbled kicks may be recovered by the kicking team. They can not be advanced unless the receiver of the kick gains possession and then fumbles when tackled.

2. The penalty for two forward passes on the same down has been changed. In the past there have been several instances where a forward pass was completed successfully and after the ball had been advanced for a long gain, an attempted lateral pass actually became a second forward pass. Under the collegiate rule the ball is brought back to the point at which it originally was put into play. The new professional rule provides for a loss of FIVE yards from the point at the second and illegal forward pass.

A second incomplete forward pass in the end zone constitutes a touchback and loss of the ball to opponents on their 20 yard line. This is the rule in the collegiate code. It also is the professional rule unless the second incomplete pass into the end zone is thrown when the ball was put into play from a point back of the opponents' 20 yard line. In this case the ball passes over to the opponents at that point rather than the 20 yard line.

THE BEARS ARE COMING!

IKE FRANKIAN
Giant End

This season the Bears come in, formidable as ever, topping the west in games won, leading in yards piled up by a wide margin and the closest rivals the Giants have in point getting. So another great struggle is forecast.

Beattie Feathers record breaking ground gainer; Red Pollock, recruit sensation; Jack Manders, whose accurate place kicking sank the Giants last year; Bill Karr and Bill Hewitt, two of the greatest ends in the game; and a host of others come here piloted by George Halas and Red Grange.

It is advisable to secure your reserved seats in advance. The seat sale opens Tuesday in the office of the New York Giants, 11 West 42nd St., Room 1740.

Once again the greatest rivalry in professional football is renewed. The Chicago Bears, champions of the west last season and current leaders in the struggle for the western playoff berth, invade the Polo Grounds next Sunday.

Never has the clash of the Giants and Bears failed to produce anything but the toughest and wideopen football. Last fall it took a stirring last second rally for the Bears to come from behind to beat the Giants 10 to 9 in the regular season game.

Then the Giants got another crack at them in the playoff for the Ed Thorp Memorial game and those who saw that memorable 30 to 13 victory for Steve Owen's group are still talking about that one.
