THE FINAL AND BIGGEST HURDLE

The New York Giants, defending champions, face the biggest test in their campaign to retain the National Football League crown next Sunday when the Washington Redskins invade the Polo Grounds.

This is the final home game for the Giants and there is no denying that it looms as the toughest. Steve Owen's charges have been through a long and heavy campaign since last August and if they get by the Dodgers today the Redskins will be the last obstacle to a playoff berth once more.

Gaining that playoff looks even tougher today than it did two months ago for at that time the Redskins had not walked through all opposition and set new high marks in offensive achievements. Now the Washington team comes to the Polo Grounds favored to turn back the Giants and it would seem with good reason if comparative performances mean anything in football.

SAMMY BAUGH
Redskins' Ace Passer

The Redskins do not only have the incomparable Sammy Baugh to do their flinging but they have an equally efficient tosser in Frank Filchock, former Pirate ace who tossed two touchdown passes here a year ago to give the Pittsburgh teams its last victory. These two have completed over 57 per cent of their attempted passes this season.

It wasn't so long ago either that Cliff Battles' running brought shivers to the spines of Giants' supporters. Now the Redskins come this way not with one running back of exceptional ability but two in Anvil Andy Farkas and Dick Todd, who showed enough at Ebbets Field two weeks ago to give Steve Owen insomnia ever since that time.

And not to forget the Redskins' band either. That befeathered outfit has sent word up that it is going to toot our own Giants' band right into the Harlem next Sunday.

TICKETS FOR THE REDSKINS GAME

Reserved seat tickets for the final home game of the season with the Washington Redskins here next Sunday are now on sale in the Exchange Booth in the rear of the lower stand on the first base side.

TURK EDWARDS
Redskins' Captain

The entire upper stand and the field stands have been reserved for the deciding game of the Eastern championship race. The Giants management last week refused to accept any further mail orders when it became apparent there would not be a sufficient supply of tickets left to meet the public demand if mail orders continued to be accepted and filled.

Season subscribers, who have occupied the same seats all season, of course, take most of the upper stand seats between the goal posts. If you have been disappointed in the location of your seats and are a frequent rooter for the Football Giants we advise that you avail yourself of the opportunity next season to become a season subscriber. There is no extra charge for this service and you secure the same seats for all home games.

As an added convenience for ticket purchasers a new office has been opened on the second floor at 11 West 42nd Street. This office will be open every day next week from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. for the sale of reserved seats and tickets for season courtesy book holders.

Season subscribers will secure their reserved seats as usual in Room 1740, 11 West 42nd Street.

Remember, please—NO PHONE or MAIL ORDERS.

O'BRIEN, HALL ON TOP

Individual records have been tied or broken for the past five consecutive weeks in the National Football League. Four new marks were written into the books last Sunday. Don Hutson, Green Bay end, accounted for two new standards; Andy Farkas, Washington, and Davey O'Brien, Philadelphia, one each.

The closest race for forward passing laurels ever developed in the National League has boiled down into a thrilling duel between two of the league's outstanding rookies as Davey O'Brien continues to complete passes in sensational style, to challenge Parker Hall, Cleveland. O'Brien completed 21 passes last Sunday to break his own one week mark of 19 completions. Hall continues to lead the passers with 76 completions out of 155 tosses, an efficiency average of 49 per cent. O'Brien, with 46 completions in the last two games, now has 64 out of 127 for 50 per cent, breaking his second place tie with Ace Parker, Brooklyn.

Sammy Baugh, Washington, moved into a third place tie with Parker with 45 completions for 52 per cent efficiency. Frank Filchock, Washington, has 62 per cent efficiency, but has thrown only 54 passes. Filchock is tied with Arnie Herber, Green Bay, and Bernie Masterson, Chicago Bears, with eight touchdown passes.

Don Hutson lost his record of 9 touchdowns in one season to Farkas, who has 11 for a new standard, but established two new ones to now possess outright or share in every pass receiving record on the books. Though he is second to Perry Schwartz, Brooklyn, in passes caught, 27 to 29, his 794 yards on receptions breaks the old league mark of 675 by Gaynell Tinsley, Chicago Cardinals, in 1937.

Farkas, in addition to scoring eleven touchdowns, has converted two extra points, raising his scoring total to 68 points for the season. Bill Osanski, Chicago Bears rookie, rose to a second place tie with John Drake, Cleveland, with 48 points.

REDSKINS BEST IN PASSING

The Chicago Bears officially became the most powerful team in National Football League history by shattering records in ground gaining and scoring in the tenth week of play. Their 250 points and 5586 yards in ten games exceed the league team standards for eleven games both made by Green Bay.

The former totals were 223 points in 1938 and 3201 yards in 1937. It is the first time a league team has established both of these offensive records in one season. Another league team record was tied by Philadelphia with 21 forward pass completions in one game. Detroit had established this mark only the previous week.

Washington climbed into a tie with Cleveland in the forward passing race this week with 88 completions out of 153 tosses for 57 per cent efficiency. Cleveland has 93 completions out of 191 for 48 per cent. Green Bay has completed 84 and Philadelphia 82. Washington is nine per cent ahead of the league efficiency mark and has an excellent chance of finishing the season with this record.

Washington is second in ground gaining and third in scoring with 3008 yards and 264 points. Washington is also the best defensive unit, having held opponents to 78 points and 1723 yards. New York has allowed only 71 points and Detroit 2037 yards.

PRO RULES

There are differences in rules for games played in the National Football League and under intercollegiate rules. We would like to call your attention to these major differences:

1. The goal posts are on the goal line (not ten yards back).

2. Forward passes are permitted from any point to the line of scrimmage (not thrown from five yards behind line).

3. The penalty for a forward pass thrown beyond the line of scrimmage is loss of down and five yards from the spot such pass is made.

4. A forward pass on fourth down is not a touchback if it goes over the goal line providing the pass originated outside the 20-yard line. In other words if the pass was thrown from the 25-yard line on fourth down it reverts to the defending team at that point.

5. On a kickoff the receiving team is not required to have five players within five yards of the restraining line. Kickers are permitted to use tees in making kickoffs.

6. The penalty for clipping is 25 yards (not 15).

7. The ball is not dead when the runner touches the ground unless definitely in the grasp of an opponent and all forward progress stopped.

8. Substitutes may talk to teammates immediately on entering game.

9. Any two players of either team may re-enter the game once in the fourth quarter.

10. When a penalty is inflicted inside the 10-yard line it shall be only half the distance to the goal line.

11. A fumbled ball which strikes the ground may be advanced by an opponent when he recovers it.

12. On out of bounds kickoffs the ball is put in play on the 45-yard line (not the 35-yard line).

LEEMANS BEST GAINER

Tuffy Leemans is the best ground gainer among the Giants this season with 378 yards or about 1.5 yards per attempt. The New York ace is sixth among the league's best ball toters and only a few yards out of third place. His closest Giant rival is Len Barnum, his running mate in the second period backfield. Barnum has gained 224 yards, averaging three yards. The best Giant average is Eddie Miller's, with 93 yards gained in 28 attempts. The rookie back also has the best passing average with 12 completions in 22 attempts.

MANDERS LEADS DODGERS

Pur Manders, husky rookie back, has the best ground-gaining record of the Brooklyn Dodger backs. Manders has picked up 381 yards in 93 attempts and is right near the top in the league's best ball toters.

Ace Parker has gained over 200 yards running the ball, but it is in passing that the former Duke star has been shining. Parker has completed 65 out of 142 passes, to gain 891 yards, and he has also thrown four touchdowns.

GIANTS ON PARADE

For the first time since the Giants started representing New York in the National Football League a band has been organized to help round out your day's enjoyment.

Under the direction of Russell Wooding this 50 piece band which you will see play and maneuver today has been drilling for more than a month.

It is the hope of the Giants' management that this band will be as outstanding as the team has been on the field. To achieve that aim improvements will continue to be made as the season progresses.

Russell Wooding, Director of the Band, has written the words for the new Giant swing march which will be played this afternoon.
