Wide Open League Makes Strange Developments Possible

As was proved last week, when the Washington Redskins defeated the Chicago Bears by 21 to 7, the National Football League this season is a wide open affair.

To the naked eye, the New York Giants seem utterly out of the running. But, things could happen.

The New York eleven has two scheduled meetings with the Washington outfit. The first of these comes next Sunday, right here at the Polo Grounds. The second meeting is slated for Washington on December 12.

Suppose the Giants beat Brooklyn and then go on to win a pair from the Redskins? Pipedream?

Well, who would have envisioned Washington's easy success against a Chicago club which had passed the Giants dizzy? Yes, this is a season of strange things, and the Polo Grounders never are going to say die.

The Washington club has become the standout attraction of the National League. That means—

IF YOU WANT TO SEE THE GAME NEXT SUNDAY FROM A GOOD SEAT, GET YOUR TICKETS IMMEDIATELY.

DON'T DELAY. THE REDSKINS AND SAMMY BAUGH ALWAYS HAVE PACKED THE PARK AND THEY ARE GOING TO DO IT IN A BIG WAY ON SUNDAY.

To get the best locations, you must buy your tickets in advance.

Tickets for the next game always are on sale in the Lower Stand, back of Section 16.

Tickets also may be purchased in the offices of the New York Football Giants, at 11 West 42nd Street.

And you may buy tickets, too, at the headquarters of the New York Baseball Giants, 104 West 42nd Street.

As you see, there are enough spots catering to your wants, if only you will get your seats in advance.

Short Cut to Friendship

BILL says he cussed the moving-van for bringing me next door...
I tell him, "You were poison, man,
the first six months or more!"

We short-cut through our gardens, now,
and vault the picket fence,
For common danger's taught us how to act with common sense!

Tonight, as we review a scheme to guard our homes and town,
We'll pledge our mutual esteem with savory Seven Crown!

Picking National League Eleven

Just a Breeze,—Or, Is It?

SID LUCKMAN

SAM BAUGH

WITH the National Football League season fast drawing to a close—and a dramatic, thrill-loaded climax, too—gridiron fans are beginning to sort out the heroes. Soon the newspaper experts will be at it, too.

With an eye to beating the gun on an all-star eleven, composed of National Leaguers, Frank Stevens invited two dopesters of repute to offer their suggestions. They started:

First Expert—Picking this team is just a breeze. I will name the ends. Hutson, Green Bay, and Wilson, the Bears. Marvels doing anything.

Second Expert—What about Masterson, of the Redskins? What about Jacunski of the Packers?

First Expert—Well, let's wait to settle that. The best tackles, I would say, are Adams of Green Bay and Sears of the Steagles.

Second Expert—You say, huh? Well, what about Cope of the Giants? What about Rymkus of the Redskins? I almost forgot Al Blozis.

First Expert—I think we should settle that later, too. I do hope you will let me name Turner of the Bears at center.

Second Expert—I might give you Turner. I dunno. We'll see later.

First Expert—Now, about the guards. I name Avedizian of the Giants and Wilkin of Washington.

Second Expert—Oh, you don't like Musso of the Bears, eh? And I guess this here Filley is a bum, what?

First Expert—Wait a minute. You've got me as daffy as you are. Filley is with Notre Dame, and one of the guards of the year. But he isn't in the National League.

Second Expert—Well, you are right, for once. Filley IS with Notre Dame.

First Expert—Now, the backfield is a cinch. I nominate—

Second Expert—Let me do some nominating first. You have been giving me nothing but the veto. Now, Luckman at quarter, Clark of the Bears and Baugh, halfbacks, and Farkas, fullback.

First Expert—Holy cat, no Canadeo? Clark has a better ground gaining total. But Canadeo of the Packers is the Isbell of that club this season. Canadeo is a fine passer.

Second Expert—Well, this here Nix of the Giants is no punk, either.

First Expert—Yes, and put that Zimmerman of the Steagles on the Bears, for example. And you seem to have overlooked Condit of the Dodgers. Lemme see, we also overlooked Pug Manders.

Frank Stevens—Gentlemen, suppose we adjourn this for another week. Personally, I like that Creighton Miller.

Both Experts—Mr. Stevens, Creighton Miller plays for Notre Dame.

CURTAIN

Are your eyes wide open?

If they are, then take a look at the color of the tobacco in Raleigh Cigarettes. Compare it with the color of tobaccos in other popular-priced brands. No, your eyes don't deceive you—the rich, mellow tobacco leaves in Raleighs are more golden. That's why Raleighs are a milder, better-tasting smoke. Try a pack today!

Kids are kids, and these days, mighty handy to have around. But when things get very tough and experience is the thing, it's mighty fine to have some of the older hands on the job. This Giant outfit is the youngest in the history of the club. But how about the four vets you see on this page?

Team-Work

The Keystone of Success

"Combined operations" has made possible the invasion of the European continent.

Secretary Knox has seen his hoped-for goal of "a ship a day" become a reality through "combined operations."

Munitions and planes are coming off the production line in breathtaking quantities through "combined operations"—team-work.

Pile-driver blows are being dealt the axis by our All America Team throughout the world in this global war for freedom.

Typical of America—Team-Work is exemplified on the Ball Field, the Battle Field and the Production Field. We are proud of the score our barrel industry is piling up through "combined operations."

Capt. Gelatka and Lieut. Yeager Cited For Bravery in Action

Now the stories of heroism by Giant football players in the service are beginning to come in. The New York football club already shows 46 service stars, and the first of these to be decorated are Captain Charles Gelatka and Lieut. Howard L. Yeager, both of the Army Air Corps. Giant fans don't have to be told what these men meant to Steve Owen when they were out there on the Polo Grounds gridiron.

Capt. Gelatka, fighter plane pilot, has won the Air Medal and Distinguished Flying Cross in operations in the South Pacific. He has been cited twice for combat activities in the Paupan and Darwin areas.

Howie Yeager, a fine end, got the Soldier's Medal for Heroism for thrice entering a blazing, crashed plane to remove its two occupants. In this act of heroism, Lieut. Yeager suffered severe burns about the face, hands and legs and spent quite a time in the hospital.

Back up Gelatka and Yeager, back up our other millions in the service, by buying War Bonds—and then MORE WAR BONDS!

Conquerors of Bears Come To Polo Grounds Sunday

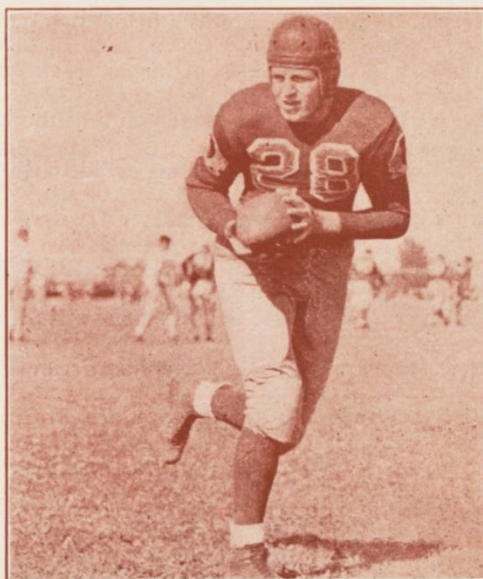

ANDY FARKAS

Next on the football bill of fare at the Polo Grounds—next Sunday—will be the Washington Redskins. They sprang one of the real surprises of National League history last Sunday, when they took the Chicago Bears. Luckman and Co. just had run up 56 points on the Giants, and had given the impression they were invincible. But that's football for you! The Redskins left no doubt as to which was the better team when they walloped the Bears. And now those Washington heroes are headed for the Harlem—and plenty of excitement next Sunday.

CHARLEY AVEDISIAN

JOHN KARCIS

The football season is reaching its climax. Many players now with the Giants will be missing when the 1944 season opens. Many will go into service. However, we all hope that before another gridiron campaign rolls around, the Axis will be licked and we will be able to return to a peacetime basis. And when that basis comes back, football will share in the greatest sports boom in the history of the country. Meanwhile, here is a handful of little stories about some of the men who have been battling in the colors of the Giants. Let's go!

HEIN, MEL—Center

League's No. 1 pivot following eight years, a record far beyond all other league players. Performed in 136 championship games without missing one. Also took part in numerous All-Star and exhibition contests. Needed time-out only in two games. One of the most remarkable iron-man achievements in sports. Giant team captain. Played four years high school football; also four years at Washington State, winning All-American honors. After the 1942 season joined the Union College faculty as member of the physical education department.

All-League in 1936, his first season as a Giant. Regained all-league honors in 1939 as No. 1 ball carrier. Gained over 3,200 yards from scrimmage. Each year was the Giants' backfield ace and league's most consistent ground gainer. Came back this season as the new Giant backfield coach. Returned to playing competition just before the first league game with the Phila.-Pitt. Eagles

Oct. 9. Born in Superior, Wis. Resides in Silver Springs, outside Washington, D. C.

ADAMS, O'NEALE (SNOZ)—End

Arkansas U., 1940-42. Second season with the Giants. Twenty-four; six feet three inches; weighs 195. Single. Football, basketball and track in college. Quickly made good as Giant rookie, especially as pass catcher. Scored four touchdowns. In first league game against Washington, completed forward pass for 66-yard touchdown. WITH DODGERS

Today the Giants and the Dodgers meet on the gridiron for the thirtieth time in a series which was started in 1926. In spite of the fact that the New York club holds the master edge, with 434 points to 163, and 21 victories against 5, with three ties, it has been one of the most thrilling and robust relationships in the National Football League.

It will be recollected that early in the season the Giants scored a 20 to 0 victory in Flatbush, over a Brooklyn club which hardly had got organized. Yet, even that contest was a vehement one from start to finish.

The Giants this afternoon seek three straight over the Dodgers and some measure of revenge for the four in a row which Brooklyn achieved against the New York club until Steve Owen's men gained a 10 to 0 success in the second meeting of 1942. In the first game last year Brooklyn was the victor, 17 to 7.

When the series started, the Giants got eight out of nine before they were halted in a 10 to 10 tie. The New York eleven won the first two, then was nosed out 7 to 6, and followed with six in a row before the Dodgers accomplished that 1933 deadlock.

Into this series on the gridiron has been transmitted all the intense rivalry which makes New York-Brooklyn meetings so thrilling in the National Baseball League. No matter what the Dodgers and the Giants may have done in previous appearances of any season, their own battles throw the dope book into the ash can.

YOU CAN hear the zest and liveliness of drinks mixed with Canada Dry Water... sparkle lasts right down to the bottom sip.

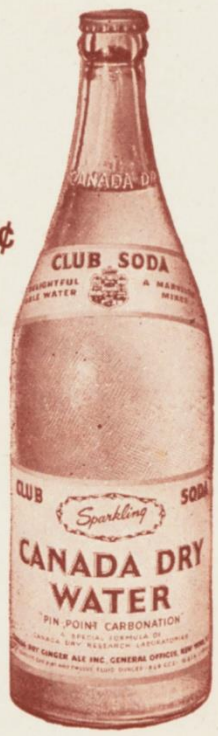

Canada Dry's "PIN-POINT CARBONATION" means millions of tinier bubbles... brisk little bubbles that insure lasting liveliness, in spite of melting ice.

What's more, Canada Dry's special formula points up the flavor of any drink mixed with sparkling Canada Dry Water. Try it next time!

P.S. If you prefer mixers with fuller flavor, there's nothing like Canada Dry... "The Champagne of Ginger Ales."
