Professional Football Fights On Through Third War Campaign

THE National Professional Football League finds itself carrying on through this third season of war. It would have been utterly easy to have locked the gates on the outbreak of hostilities and announced that the league was going to do nothing about it until peace had been restored and a normal flow of material had been obtained again.

However, the National League felt that the football fans of America wanted professional competition to continue. In that belief, it has been supported handsomely. It is not oblivious of its debt to the patrons.

Wartime America has gone in for recreation, for sports, more ardently than ever. The fans are willing to make allowances for such shortcomings in material as may develop. On the whole, it must be admitted that these shortcomings have not been flagrant.

The league keeps fighting on, confident that it has a definite place in the wartime scheme on the Home Front.

The circuit looks forward with keen expectation and tremendous confidence to the vast boom which will favor football just as soon as G. I. Joe comes marching home.

In the meantime, Joe is fighting on numerous fronts. He is cleaning up in Germany, he is battling in France, he is in Iceland, in England, he is fighting the Nips in the South Pacific, exterminating their hold on the Philippines.

G. I. Joe's activities mean vast expenditures. These expenditures shout that there must be no letdown in supporting the war on this end.

There are financial bills to be paid, and YOU MUST HELP TO PAY THEM.

Don't wait for War Bond drives to spur your enthusiasm for the greatest investment in the history of the United States.

Buy More War Bonds. Buy them now. Buy them tomorrow and the next day. G. I. Joe never gets a letup. Why should folks at home quit on them for as much as 60 minutes?

BUY MORE WAR BONDS! KEEP BUYING THEM!

Where Skill really Counts . . .

It takes more than a football suit to make a star half-back . . . and it takes more than a distilling plant to make a truly great whiskey like Seagram's 7 Crown.

Yes . . . and it takes even more than treasured reserves of many different fine whiskeys . . . even more than ample stocks of genuine neutral grain spirits. Most of all, it takes skill, and craftsmanship, and experience, to achieve the exquisite flavor and bouquet and mellow lightness of Seagram's 7 Crown to keep its rare excellence unchanged in wartime.

Today, as always, Seagram's 7 Crown is one of the world's great whiskeys . . . every drop 100% pre-war quality. True, it's scarcer now than usual . . . but there's still enough for you to enjoy in moderation. Sip it slowly . . . savor its excellence . . . and be thankful that Seagram's 7 Crown is still to be had!

NEW YORK GIANTS

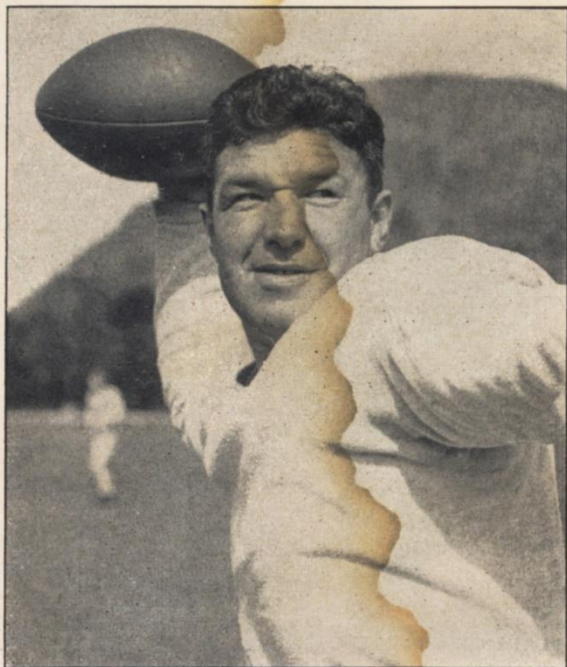

BILL PASCHAL—Champion Ball Carrier Leads Giants' Attack

The New York Giants' 1944 offense is spearheaded by Bill Paschal, the National League's leading ground gainer. With only three minutes of college competition at Georgia Tech, Paschal, green but willing rookie, joined the New York Club last season. The blond 23-year Georgian quickly adjusted himself to new surroundings and raced through all opposition to the league's ball carrying title, 572 yards in 147 rushes.

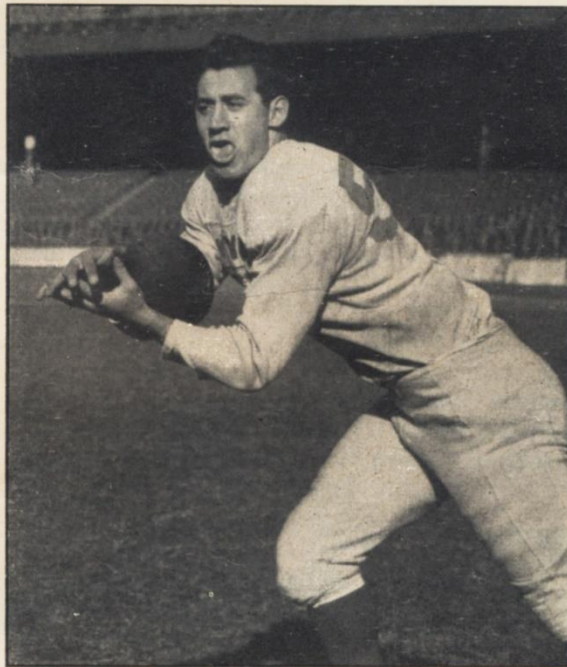

KEN STRONG—Now Kicking for Giants

The New York Giants' latest kicking specialist is Ken Strong, who still boots 'em over from mid-field. One of the game's greatest all-time stars, Strong helped restore the foot in football in twelve years of pro competition, as he punted and scored field goals with remarkable success. The 37-year veteran culminated his sensational New York U. career with 162 points in his senior year, more than anyone ever tallied in the sport's long history.

ARNIE HERBER—Now Pitching for Giants

Arnie Herber, who pitched to Don Hutson to form the gridiron's All-time No. 1 battery, now heads the Giants' aerial attack. The stocky 33-year wizard still operates with much of the power and skill that enabled him to score many forward passing records during the 11 years he made history with the Green Bay Packers. Herber stopped in 1941 to devote all his time to business in Wisconsin.

FRANK LIEBEL—Giants' Star Pass-Catching End

Honorably discharged from the Marines in 1942, Liebel signed with the Giants last season and soon attracted attention with his fast end play and pass-receiving ability. The former Norwich U. star showed great improvement this season. His clever catch of Nix's long pass and brilliant run for the touchdown was one of the vital plays in the Giants' 31-4 victory over the Redskins that deadlocked the Eastern championship.

HERE'S JUST WHAT YOU'VE BEEN LOOKING FOR!

Been looking for a cigarette that hasn't let down on flavor? Then Raleigh is your answer! For Raleighs are still made from fully aged, golden domestic leaf, blended with rich, aromatic Turkish tobaccos from ample stocks of vintages that are now irreplaceable.

Yes, and Raleighs are double-fresh too. They're kept that way by the best known moistening ingredient, and by an exclusive laminated inner wrap. Get fresher Raleighs today—they taste better naturally! Quality is never rationed in a Raleigh.

Howard Livingston Latest Sensational Owen Product

LEAVE it to Stout Steve Owen to come through with surprises and sensations. Leave it to the veteran coach of the Giants to develop startling newcomers, to bring out latent skills in veterans. There are coaches and coaches in this league of professional football teams. But Steve is the perennial triumph, the strong man with the basically sound ideas.

Owen sprang a sensation in Bill Paschal, who had played only three minutes of football at Georgia Tech. Emery Nix, from T.C.U., was another example of the dark horse carefully groomed by Stout Steve.

Now comes still another sensation, potentially greater than any of the past. He is Howard Livingston, the 22 year old back from Fullerton, Cal.

Livingston came to the Giants with only one year of Junior college experience in California. He had been discharged by the Navy. Standing 6 feet 1 in height, and tipping the beam at 192 pounds, Livingston presented the physical material. Now Owen is moulding it into a fine back.

It won't be long before Howard Livingston shows up as the tailback of the Giants—the most vital cog in the offensive machine.

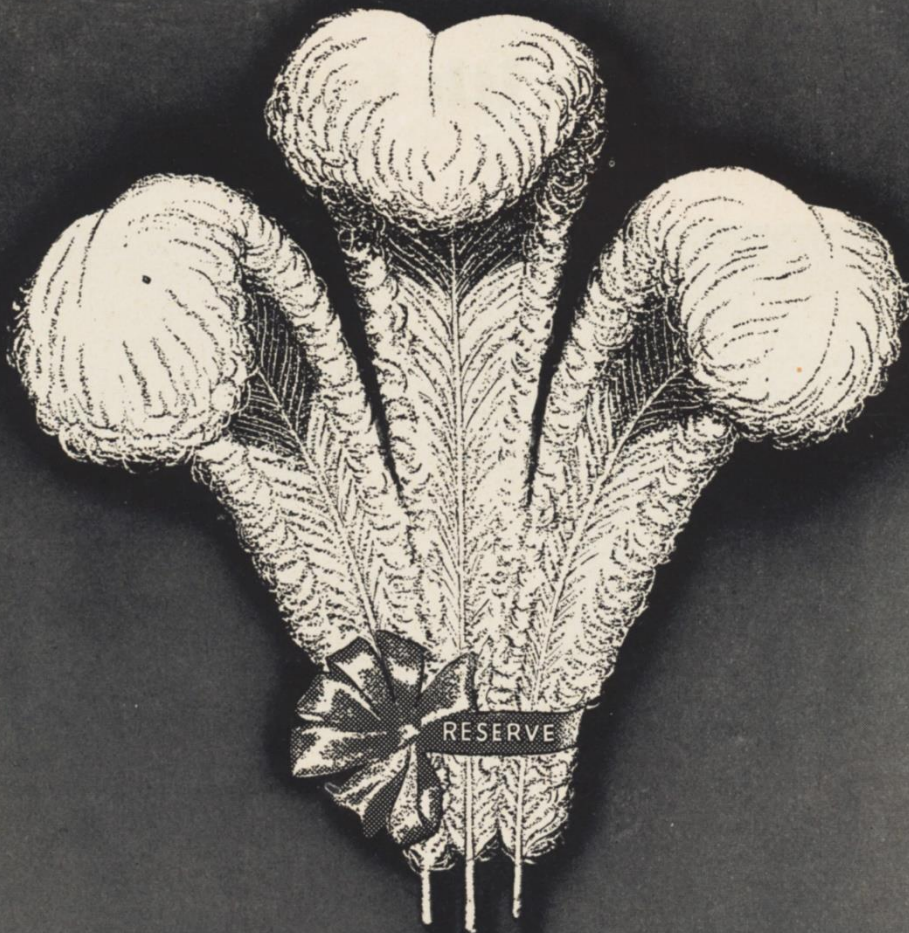

Livingston is the snaky hips type of runner. He can kick, he can pass. As yet, a trifle green. As yet, not so familiar with professional football practice, and the National League picture.

But keep an eye on this lad from California. He just can't miss.

He can run 100 yards under 10 seconds. He has a high competitive spirit. Another spectacular figure in the long line of great backs developed by Stout Steve.

Brilliant Veterans Still Carry On for New York Eleven

WARD CUFF

MEL HEIN—Center.

Washington State, 1929-31. Fourteenth season with Giants. Mel is 35 years old, stands six feet four inches and weighs 232 pounds. All-America center in college. Joined Giants in 1931. Ranked second best center in National League that season. League's No. 1 pivot following eight years, a record far beyond reach of all other league players. Performed in 125 championship games without missing one. Also participated in many All-Star and exhibition contests. Only needed time-out in two games. One of the most remarkable iron-man achievements in sports. Giant team captain. Signed to coach Union College football in 1943. Off-season occupation—airplane factory. Birthplace—Redding, Cal. Home—New York.

HANK SOAR—Halfback

Providence, 1935-37. Eighth season with Giants. Hank is 29 years old, stands six feet and weighs 218 pounds. One season with Boston Shamrocks. Fine runner and pass defender. Took pass to give Giants title win over Green Bay in 1938. Led Giant ground-gainers in 1937. Off-season occupation—millwright and baseball umpire. Birthplace and home—Alton, R. I. Married.

FRANK LIEBEL—End

Norwich U., 1940-42. Third season with Giants. Frank is 25 years old, stands six feet one inch and weighs 202 pounds. Outstanding in football and basketball in college. Birthplace and home—Erie, Pa.

THERE are some dazzling newcomers among the New York Giants. There are quite a few green hands who, under the expert tutelage of Steve Owen, Tuffy Leemans, Red Smith and Leland Shaffer, have grown into fine players just within the space of the few games played by the 1944 outfit.

But there are also some standbys—veterans who maintain the high quality of Giant play, who furnish the stabilizers in the clutches. It is possible that many fans take these heroes of many campaigns of hard play for granted.

There are, too, thousands of new professional football patrons who may not be familiar with the histories and backgrounds of some of these New York standbys. Here is some dope on a few of them:

FRANK COPE—Tackle

Santa Clara, 1935-37. Seventh season with Giants. Frank is 28 years old, stands six feet three inches and weighs 232 pounds. Football captain in college. Became first-string Giant tackle in 1939. Birthplace and home—Hayward, California.

WARD CUFF—Halfback

Marquette, 1935-37. Eighth season with Giants. Cuff is 30 years old, stands six feet one inch and weighs 198 pounds. All-time Giants high-scorer with 205 points. Two years National League field-goal kicking champion, although he never kicked in college. Each season has been one of the leading backs in the pro circuit. Off-season occupation—coaching at Marquette. Birthplace—Redwood Falls, Minn. Home—Milwaukee, Wis.

O'NEALL ADAMS—End

Arkansas University, 1940-42. Third season with Giants. Adams is 25 years old, stands six feet three inches and weighs 195 pounds. Football, basketball and track in college. Off-season occupation—Rancher. Birthplace and home—Beebe, Ark. Single.

CHARLES AVEDISIAN—Guard

Providence U., 1939-41. Third season with Giants. Charlie is 27 years old, stands five feet nine inches and weighs 195 pounds. Played in American Association. Off-season occupation—physical culture education. Birthplace—Hoboken, N. J. Home—Pawtucket, Rhode Island.

MEL HEIN
Giant Veteran

Remember When These Starred?

THE years roll along fast. It is interesting to go back to old football programmes and old lineups, and recall the achievements of heroes of past campaigns of the National League.

It is interesting to discover that as early as 1933, Mel Hein was picked as the No. 1 centre of the circuit. Can you recall who was the choice before Mel came along? He was Barrager, of Green Bay. Before him, McNally, of the Cardinals.

The editor of this programme has dug out of the past the first five all-league teams picked officially, starting in 1931. How many of these stars did you see play? How many can you recall?

1935—Smith (Cardinals) and Karr (Bears), ends; Morgan (New York) and Musso (Bears), tackles; Kopcha (Bears) and Michalske (Green Bay), guards; Hein (New York), center; Clark (Detroit), quarterback; Danowski (New York) and Caddell (Detroit), halfbacks; Mikulak (Cardinals), fullback.

1934—Hewitt (Bears) and Badgro (New York), ends; Christensen (Detroit) and Morgan (New York), tackles; Gibson (New York) and Kopcha (Bears), guards; Hein (New York), center; Clark (Detroit), quarterback; Feathers (Bears) and Strong (New York), halfbacks; Nagurski (Bears), fullback.

1933—Hewitt (Bears) and Badgro (New York), ends; Hubbard (Green Bay) and Edwards (Boston), tackles; Hickman (Brooklyn) and Kopcha (Bears), guards; Hein (New York), center; Newman (New York), quarterback; Presnell (Portsmouth) and Battles (Boston), halfbacks; Nagurski (Bears), fullback.

1932—Flaherty (New York) and Johnson (Bears), ends; Hubbard (Green Bay) and Edwards (Boston), tackles; Carlson (Bears) and Kiesling (Cardinals), guards; Barrager (Green Bay), center; E. Clark (Portsmouth), quarterback; Herber (Green Bay) and Lumpkin (Portsmouth), halfbacks; Nagurski (Bears), fullback.

1931—Dilweg (Green Bay) and Badgro (New York), ends; Hubbard (Green Bay) and Christensen (Portsmouth), tackles; Michalske (Green Bay) and Gibson (New York), guards; McNally (Cardinals), center; Clark (Portsmouth), quarterback; Grange (Bears) and Blood (Green Bay), halfbacks; Nevers (Cardinals), fullback.

PUG MANDERS

Tigers Coming on November 26

IN so far as getting football tickets in advance is concerned, you cannot be too beforehand.

Start planning now to attend the annual appearance of the Brooklyn club at the Polo Grounds, on November 26.

Once the Dodgers, now officially renamed the Tigers, the Flatbush outfit will come here loaded for bear.

It will invade Harlem with Pug Manders, with Bruiser Kinard and other Brooklyn heroes of long standing, as well as some newcomers of high skill. Don't forget the date—November 26!

Philadelphia Victorious Against Giants In Only Four Games

THE National League series between New York and Philadelphia goes back to 1933. In eleven years, the two clubs have met 22 times, home and home each Fall. Only four times have the Eagles been able to take the measure of Steve Owen's men. That is a truly remarkable record.

Greasy Neale's outfit beat the Giants in Philadelphia last year 28 to 14, but when the Eagles showed up on the banks of the Harlem they were mauled by 42 to 14.

Philadelphia took its first game from New York in 1934, 6 to 0, after the Giants had made it three straight against that eleven.

In 1936, Philadelphia won again, 10 to 7, and in 1938, it scored its third triumph over the Polo Grounders, 14 to 10.

Neale's coaching system is founded on the T formation. However, he has a lot of his own private variations. Greasy always has been an adapter and offensive football innovator. His defensive tactics have not been famous because he holds to the old military idea that the finest defense is a powerful attack.

The Eagles landed here fresh from their 38 to 0 rout of the Boston team, in which Roy

Zimmerman, Greasy's brilliant back, had another grand day. Among his achievements was a 49 yard field goal from placement. Here is the record of the New York-Philadelphia series through the years:

STEVE OWEN
Giant's Coach

THE next opponent of the Giants, right here on the banks of Harlem, will be the Boston Yankees. The Owen gang already has beaten the Hub eleven, 22 to 10. But that score is not to be taken as a criterion of the quality of opposition the Yanks are likely to produce a week from today.

Boston was snowed under last Sunday by Philadelphia, 38 to 0. The Giants regarded that result as bad business for them, as the Yankees were sure to rebound against the Dodgers today, and make it very tough for New York on November 5.

Examination of the schedule of the Giants discloses some very interesting fixtures for the Polo Grounds.

On November 12, the Giants will be away, in Philadelphia, but on November 19, Green Bay will come to the banks of the Harlem. Green Bay with Mr. Hutson. Green Bay with Starrett, Jucunski, Comp, Craig, Berezney, Sorenson, the Brocks, Croft and Goldenberg. All these, and Fritsch, too. Green Bay's 30 to 21 triumph over Cleveland last Sunday stressed the high quality of the 1944 Packers.
