MISTLETOE GIN

Most dealers sell Mistletoe Gins by the bottle. Most bars sell them by the drink.
Insist on genuine Mistletoe.

Gin drinks taste their best after a brisk afternoon in the open — especially if they are made with MISTLETOE Gin. The distinctive flavor of Mistletoe Gin has never been successfully imitated. It is due to the famous old Mistletoe Process of distillation, and a formula which has stood the test of time — "since 1882."

Try these Mistletoe Drinks

Mistletoe TOM COLLINS: One jigger Mistletoe Dry Gin, juice ½ lemon, teaspoon sugar, fill with plain (white) soda. Tall glass.

Mistletoe GIN FIZZ: One jigger Mistletoe Dry Gin, juice ½ lemon, ½ teaspoon sugar. Fill with sparkling water. Tall Glass.

Mistletoe DRY MARTINI: 1 part Mistletoe Dry Gin, ½ part French Vermouth, ½ part Italian Vermouth, dash of Orange Bitters. Stir with ice, strain, and add olive.

Gus is a swell fullback. Nice fellow, too. But it's too bad about his sports clothes.

If he'd only make a few deft selections at Spalding's, Gus would be a 100%.

Right now Spalding's is featuring a variety of leather jackets, slacks . . . and a brilliant array of accessories, including many worth-while contributions to your tie-rack . . . and shirt drawer.
