MANY BREAKS - ALL BAD!

By BY SAAM

Radio-TV Sportscaster

After 17 campaigns of football in the NFL describing the flights of The Philadelphia Eagles, this commentator feels free to make a couple of observations:

(1) In 1956, everything happened to the Eagles. Most of it was bad; and to be more explicit, the kind of things that shouldn't happen to a spavined sparrow. For instance, there are 4 games I can recall where one completed pass, one fumble or one first down could have turned a defeat into a win; and with that little turn around, the Eagles could be 7-3-1 instead of 3-7-1 and be leading the Eastern Conference.

By Saam

(2) That "wait till next year" line is almost worn out, yet this spieler couldn't help but get excited over the Birds' picks for 1957.

If this sounds like a commercial, please hold the phone. Let's examine some of the reasons that general manager Vince McNally won't lose as much off-season sleep as usual. Wrapped up in a tidy package it comes out like this: the players acquired in the recent National League draft, the players coming back from the Armed Forces, and the talent on hand.

Better still, there is another draft session coming up in January and the Eagles hope to pick some strong and talented linemen from the college draft bag.

Coach Hugh Devore and his assistants are still wondering how they managed to get such high class picks in the first draft — Clarence Peaks, Bill Barnes, Tommy McDonald, and Sonny Jurgenson — all with All-American ratings. Mid-westerners tell us Peaks, until injured in one of Michigan State's earlier games, was easily the best back in the country. They believe he has what it takes to be another Ollie Matson.

Barnes attracted widespread attention at Wake Forest and when Wake Forest players attract widespread attention, they have to be better than good. He is a real sleeper.

Everybody knows about Tommy McDonald. If he turns out to be something on the order of Doak Walker, the Eagles won't be the least bit surprised. As for Jurgenson, Eddie Erdelatz, the Navy Football Coach said about this fellow, "Whoever drafted him knew what they were doing."

Two players are getting out of the Army. They are fullback Neil Worden and guard Menil Mavraides. A huge quarterback, Bob Hughes, who starred for Mississippi Southern, also will be available next year.

Of course, in 1957 we will have 11 other players with the kind of experience that makes a difference in the world's toughest business. Moving into the sophomore class will be Ken Keller, Don Schaefer, Pete Retzlaff, Willy Berzinski, Rocky Ryan, Bob Pellegrini, Frank D'Agostino, Dick Murley, Hank Burnine, Tom Dimmick and Johnny Bredice. Also, by next season Harry Dowda, Jerry Norton, Skippy Giancanelli, Norm Willey, Bill Stribling and Ted Wegert will be over the injuries that caused some forced landings by the Birds this year. Added to all of this the likes of Chuck Bednarik, Marion Campbell, Jess Richardson, Tom Scott, Bobby Thomason, Adrian Burk, Tom Brookshier and Wayne Robinson, the Eagles have a high-flying outlook for 1957.

が、経れ、は、いれいというというというない、はない、はない、はないないない。

Dear Fans:

We come to the end of another football season with this game today and once again we are indebted to you, our fans, for your wonderful support. Many problems beset us during the season as you well realize. Serious injuries to seven key players and the inexperience of our fine rookies were major factors in the season's record. On our roster today you will note there are 17 new players on our squad of 33, including eleven rookies, an indication of our untiring efforts to give you a winner. Most of our mistakes this season were typical of a young, green team. But it was the type of team that improved with each game.

We look forward to 1957 with a great deal of anticipation. We were quite fortunate in selecting the nation's greatest collegiate ball carriers at our recent draft meeting. As you probably already know, we have signed Clarence Peaks, Michigan State's all-around back for 1957. He was our number one selection. Among others also selected were halfbacks Tommy McDonald of Oklahoma; Bill Barnes of Wake Forest and quarterback Sonny Jurgensen of Duke University. We are confident these new players, added to our strong and young nucleus, will provide in 1957 what we lacked in 1956.

Management, players and coaches take this opportunity to wish all of you the very best for the holidays.

Sincerely,

GIANTS BIOGRAPHIES

BEN AGAJANIAN-End

Bootin' Ben is strictly a place kicker. He has never scored a touchdown but is the fourth best scorer in Giant history. Scored 62 points in '55 on 32 extra points and 10 fields goals, the longest a 45 yarder. Kicked his first NFL field goal for Pittsburgh in 1945. Held distance (53 yards) and quantity (15 in a season) records in All-American Conference. Is a marvelous after dinner speaker. Owns sporting goods store in Long Beach, Calif., where he lives with wife and two children.

ROOSEVELT BROWN, JR.—Tackle

Brown was a football bargain, a No. 27 draft choice who made good. Now in his fourth season as regular left tackle on offense, he was a Pro Bowl choice last winter. May be fastest big man in the game. Excellent downfield blocker. Has great strength too, and was a heavyweight wrestler in college. Off-season occupation, teacher. Home town, Charlottesville, Va. Birthday, Oct. 20.

CHARLEY CONERLY—Quarterback

Conerly, now in his ninth season, is the Giants' Old Pro. He completed 98 of 202 passes in '55, for 1310 yards and 13 touchdowns, and a 48.5 completion average. Only 13 were intercepted. All-American at Ole Miss in '47, he originally was Washington property, but Giants managed to obtain rights to him in a trade. Was Rookie of Year in '48, setting NFL completion record of 36 passes in single game that year. In '54 became third NFL passer after Baugh and Luckman to connect for 100 touchdown passes. Former Marine Corporal in Pacific. Clarksdale, Miss., cotton farmer. Married. Birthday, Sept. 19.

BOBBY EPPS—Fullback

This little fireplug proved himself a first class big league fullback last year as he took over the regular berth in the offensive backfield. He gained 375 yards in 95 attempts and scored two touchdowns. Will complete a service hitch in time for last half of the current season. Drafted No. 14, 1954. All East selection at Pittsburgh, his home town. Birthday, March 25th. Married, 1 son.

FRANK GIFFORD—Halfback

The No. 1 draft choice of '52 was a busy Giant last season. Gifford, regular left halfback, gained 351 yards on 86 carries, a 4.0 average per carry. He caught 33 passes (tops on the Giants) for 437 yards. He completed 2 of 6 passes, both for touchdowns, for 96 yards. He returned five kickoffs for 114 yards. Scored seven touchdowns. One of his top college records was that only 3 of 111 passes were intercepted in three years. Was named to official All-American team of American Football Coaches Assn. Married, with two sons. Lives in Bakersfield, Calif. Birthday, Aug. 16.

ROOSEVELT GRIER-Tackle

This titanic tackle quickly became a favorite with Giant fans as a rookie last year. Opposing passers were constantly combing Grier out of their hair. Enemy backs could run neither around him nor over him. He is very big, very fast, very strong. Was twice named as afternoon's best defensive player in '55. A former shot putter, he won several national championships in college at distances around 57 feeet, not long ago the world's record. A jazz pianist and singer, Grier is an entertainer of professional quality. Drafted No. 3, 1955. Home town, Linden, N. J. Single. Birthday, July 14.

DON HEINRICH-Quarterback

Heinrich was the Giants' starting quarterback on most occasions last season, his second as a pro. This arrangement not only permitted veteran Charley Conerly to study enemy defenses from the bench, it generally got the Giants off to a quick start. The cocky and resourceful Heinrich is at his best when lighting fires under a team. Completed 31 of 67 passes for 417 yards and two touchdowns. Scored two touchdowns on quarterback sneaks. Was NCAA passing champion in 1950 and '52 at Washington, one year setting a collegiate completion record of 60.9 percent. All-American. Drafted No. 3 in '51, though he had a year to go in school. Home town, Bremerton, Wash. Married. His daughter was born only a few hours after Heinrich led Giants to smashing 28-17 triumph over San Francisco in Seattle, in Heinrich's first appearance as a pro in his college town. Birthday, Sept. 19.

JAMES KATCAVAGE-End

Katcavage was picked No. 4 in last winter's draft as a great defensive end prospect. A real crasher. Co-Captained the Flyers. Named to second All-American team of INS. Selected to East-West Shrine Game. Majored in Industrial Management. Home town, Philadelphia. Birthday, Oct. 28. Single.

KEN MacAFEE-End

MacAfee was a sensational rookie find two seasons ago when he scored eight touchdowns, converting exactly every fourth pass reception into a score. But hard luck dogged him in '55—first a back injury, then pneumonia. He caught only 11 passes, good for 170 yards and one touchdown. Extremely fast, he's the Giants' best deep threat. Good blocker on running plays. Home town, North Easton, Mass. Married, two children. Signed as a free agent while still in the Marines. Birthday, Aug. 3.

DICK MODZELEWSKI-Tackle

"Little Mo" made most of the All-American teams in 1952 at Maryland. Was obtained in the off-season by the Giants in an involved 4 team deal and figures to team with Grier as the defensive tackles. Extremely strong and quick. Married and has 1 son. Home town—Tarentum, Pa. Birthday, February 16.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI-End

Just as the training season opened, the Giants completed an important trade with the Los Angeles Rams which brings this popular Stamford, Conn. boy to his "home" city. Andy has been regular defensive end for the Rams for four seasons and an all Pro end in the bargain. He is expected to man a defensive wing for the Giants and apply the pressure for which he is noted on opposing passers. Home town—Stamford, Conn.

KYLE ROTE—Halfback

Rote, Giants' offensive captain, was the bonus choice of the '51 draft, and has been a star since. All-time leading pass catcher of Giants with 115 receptions for 1,879 yards. Played end as well as halfback in '55 when emergency developed at end due to injuries. Caught 31 passes for 576 yards and eight touchdowns. Twice scored on 71 yard jaunts. From halfback Rote gained 46 yards on 10 carries. Unanimous All-American at S.M.U. in

'50. Has interest in several off-season businesses in Texas. Lives in San Antonio with his wife and three sons. Birthday, Oct. 27.

BOB SCHNELKER-End

Schnelker was the Giants' third ranking pass receiver in '55, after having topped the list in '54, his first season with the Club. He caught 25, good for 325 yards in '55. Made three touchdowns, compared to eight the year before when he tied two Giant records (most touchdown passes, 3, and most points, 18, in a single game). Was only experienced end after Ken MacAfee was sidelined, and defenses ganged up on him. Best blocker among Giants' offensive ends. Played with Philadelphia in '53. Married and a father. Home town, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

WALT YOWARSKY-End

Yowarsky is a five year veteran of the progame who attained stardom as a defensive end with the Washington Redskins. Came to the Giants last season after playing briefly with the Detroit Lions. Quickly made himself a regular at defensive left end, solidifying what was to become a virtually immovable forward wall. Home town, Cleveland, Ohio.
