INTRODUCTION

IT is with a deep sense of gratitude and appreciation that we welcome you to our game today. We are extremely grateful to the business men of Staten Island for their generous expression of confidence in this club, as evidenced by their financial contribution, which made this program possible.

We earnestly appeal for the support of everyone, to help us construct, to help us make football better, and most of all to help us gain admittance to the "Big Leagues." This of course, requires the expenditure of a large amount of capital, but with the continued help of the legion of loyal "Stape" supporters, who made this team possible, we hope to go on with our work, with the thought uppermost in our minds, that ultimately Staten Island will boast of the greatest team in the United States, as well as being a "Big League" stronghold.

BITS OF COLLEGE HUMOR

The world's laziest man started to cut down some trees last week. A storm came along and saved him the trouble. Later, lightning struck the brush pile and saved him the trouble of burning it. The rumor is that he is now waiting an earthquake to shake the potatoes from the ground.

—Thalia.

Ike: Shakespeare should have been a good quarterback.

Paul: You started this; proceed.

Ike: Because he had so many long run plays.

—Wash. Columns.

Walt: How fast does your car run?

Ark: Well, it manages to keep about six month ahead of my income.

—Chaparral.

Bill: Dotty, I declare, your dress barely covers your body.

Dotty: Well—what's the matter with my body?

—Georgia Cracker.

"Just Another Day Wasted Away," sang the nine hundred and ninety-nine wives of Solomon, as he picked out the favorite again.

—Punch Bowl

Prof. (in history class): In what battle was Gen. Custer killed?

Bright Stude: His last one.

—Varsity News

He: Do you ever pray, dear?

She: I pray for you every night.

He: How about ten o'clock?

—Mink.
