There's Nothing Like A Good Family Fight

Stout Steve (left) and Big Bill Owen joined forces during the war, but now that the shooting is over Bill has returned to Jersey City, where one of his biggest pleasures is taking an annual whack with his little Giants at his brother's big Giants. It may be just an exhibition game and it may be all in the family, but no punches will be pulled because of that.

Football Returns to Jersey City

The Jersey City Giants Football Club resumes full-scale activities for the 1946 season and the members of the organization welcome all of the football fans of Hudson County. After five long years of inactivity, professional football again returns to Roosevelt Stadium and we sincerely hope that the present team will live up to the fine reputation made by former Giant teams.

Bill Owen is again back with us and his many friends in Jersey City feel that he will put this city "back on the map" in football history. The management, headed by Bob Ross, is doing everything in its power to put the very best team possible on the playing field.

The American Football League (formerly the American Professional Football Association) is now composed of the following teams:

EAST

Jersey City Giants
Long Island Indians
Paterson Panthers
Newark Bombers

WEST

Akron (Ohio) Bears
Scranton (Pa.) Miners
Bethlehem (Pa.) Bulldogs
Wilmington (Del.) Clippers

The winner of each division will meet in a play-off game in December to determine the League championship. The championship team will meet the winner of the Pacific Coast League to determine the championship of the minor leagues in the country.

Again may we thank you for your past and future patronage. We welcome any constructive criticism or suggestions—drop a line to the management.
