LEEMANS CONTINUES TO GAIN

Tuffy Leemans continues to set the pace for the league in ground gaining with 704 yards in nine games, and needs only a slight additional spurt to crack the record of 1,004 yards made by Beattie Feathers in 1934.

Ed Danowski is being closely pressed for passing honors by Ed Matiese of Pittsburgh and Arnie Herber of the Packers. The latter two have gained more ground on their passes than Big Ed, but his average is only a fraction below Matiese's and slightly better than Herber's.

The Redskins are Coming!

The Giants have two games left of their regular schedule this season. Next Thursday New York will invade Ebbets Field for the annual Turkey Day scramble with the Dodgers and if you remember that thrilling 10 to 10 battle the two teams staged here in the opening game of the season this fall, you'll know what to expect when they get together again with the double incentive of the Eastern title at stake.

In order to accommodate those Giant fans who plan to go to the Ebbets Field struggle on Thanksgiving Day, the Giant office at 11 W. 42nd Street, will have tickets available beginning tomorrow morning. Box seats at $2.20. Reserved seats, $1.65 and general admission, $1.10.

Following this invasion of Brooklyn the New York eleven returns to the Polo Grounds two weeks from today, December 6, to close the season with the Boston Redskins, one of the toughest clubs in the National League.

Ably coached by Ray Flaherty, familiar figure to all Polo Grounders for his feats in a Giant uniform, the Redskins are still in the race for the Eastern title and this game may very well be the deciding scrap for the berth in the playoff against the western champion.

The Redskins have one of the greatest defensive records in the circuit and it took a 35-yard sprint by Tuffy Leemans to beat them in the first clash in Boston earlier this season. In addition to being a tough defensive club the Boston outfit has one of the greatest running backs of all time in Cliff Battles, former West Virginia Wesleyan star. Giving Battles able assistance is Pug Rentner, former Northwestern powerhouse, and blocking for these two lusty ball toters is none other than Ernie Pincert, greatest of all Southern California blockers.

TURK EDWARDS
Boston Tackle

Tickets for the Redskins game will be available in the office of the New York Giants on a week from tomorrow, Monday, November 30. The New York Giants office is located in Room 1740, 11 West 42nd Street. Phone CHickering 4-3400.

The National Football League

RULES OF MAJOR LEAGUE FOOTBALL SUMMARIZED BY WILFRID SMITH

Professional football, in the past three seasons, has altered the code of rules under which colleges and universities play the game. The changes have not been numerous but they have been important.

The most important change permits forward passes to be thrown from any point behind the scrimmage line. The college rule permits forward passes from any point FIVE yards behind the scrimmage line.

In professional football the goal posts are on the goal lines.

Professional football declined to adopt the "dead ball" rule of the collegiate code.

Flying blocks and flying tackles are permitted in the professional game. The professional rule against clipping, that is, knocking down an opponent from the rear, is strictly enforced. The penalty is loss of 25 yards, as compared with the collegiate rule which penalizes infractions with the loss of 15 yards.

Professional players may be stationed any place on the field so long as they do not advance within 10 yards of the ball before it is kicked.

At the kickoff, the pros may kick from a dirt tee.

Substitute players may communicate with their teammates immediately on entering the game. Coaches must be notified when the limit of three times out have been taken in a half.

When the ball carrier is run out of bounds or is tackled at any point within 15 yards of the side line, the ball will be placed in play at a corresponding point 15 yards from the side of the field.

Offside penalties on the defense within its own 10 yard line have been minimized. Instead of loss of five yards, customary rule, the penalty in this area now is half the distance to the goal.

Here are the two most important changes in the pro rules for this fall:

1. A fumbled ball, except fumbles resulting from lateral passes, may be advanced by either team, no matter whether the ball strikes the ground or not. On fumbled laterals, the rule remains the same. The offense may recover and advance; the defense only may recover unless the ball is caught in the air. Then it may be advanced. Fumbled kicks may be recovered by the kicking team. They can not be advanced unless the receiver of the kick gains possession and then fumbles when tackled.

2. The penalty for two forward passes on the same down has been changed. In the past there have been several instances where a forward pass was completed successfully and after the ball had been advanced for a long gain, an attempted lateral pass actually became a second forward pass. Under the collegiate rule the ball is brought back to the point at which it originally was put into play. The new professional rule provides for a loss of FIVE yards from the point at the second and illegal forward pass.
