PATERSON PANTHERS

WELCOME TO THE PANTHERS!

BILL OWEN
Head Coach of the Giants

TODAY the Jersey Giants welcome to Roosevelt Stadium their most bitter rivals in the American League—the Paterson Panthers. Having defeated the Newark Bombers twice, Bill Owen's Jersey City squad now will try to beat the Panthers in order to claim the professional championship of New Jersey.

Many a fan will remember the famous Panther-Giant games of 1938, 1939 and 1940 and expectations are for a repetition of these knock-down drag-out battles today. The Panthers have had more than a little hard luck this season but they have been improving steadily the last few weeks and are sure to be "up" for this game, which is their prime objective.

GIANTS' HOME SCHEDULE

Oct. 6	Jersey City 24, Long Island 7
Oct. 13	Jersey City, 14, Newark 3
Oct. 20	Jersey City 21, Bethlehem 17
Today, Nov. 3	Paterson Panthers
Sunday, Nov. 24	Scranton Miners

Among the Panthers will be five players who were with the Giants at the start of the season. Sam Fox, Julie Sroka, Sherwin Lippman, Victor Bland and Bernie Jovans all are ex-Giants and will be out to prove that it was a mistake to let them go. They will have plenty of support in such capable performers as Tommy Maines, ex-Syracuse backfield star; Jim Worst, hard-hitting end from Manhattan, and Tony Venutolo, rugged guard who played for Columbia last year.

We hope our fans will excuse us if we express the hope that they do not see another game such as was played here against the Bethlehem Bulldogs. Too many of our supporters claim that game took so much out of them that it was bad for their hearts.

May we also welcome here today the lads of Paul Revere Boys Club, who will put on a football show of their own before the big game and between the halves. It will be the Lexingtons against the Concordes in two eight-minute halves. Let's give these youngsters a great big hand!

Giants Undefeated in Six League Games

It's six in a row now for Bill Owen's Jersey City Giants, who won a close battle from Long Island by a 14-10 score last Sunday. This triumph virtually assured the Giants of the American League's Eastern Division title. Barring slip-ups, they will face the western winner in the championship play-off here at Roosevelt Stadium on Sunday, Dec. 8.

He Calls Them Right

CLINTON (RED) McLAIN, former Southern Methodist star, is one of the chief reasons why no American League rival has been able to beat the Jersey Giants this season. Hard-hitting Red is a quarterback who knows when to call what play. And he does more than his share to make sure that his selections work.
