Results Last Weekend Narrow League Race to Four Elevens

DETROIT HAS EDGE, BUT CARDINALS, POTTSVILLE AND FRANKFORD HAVE CHANCE TO ANNEX TITLE

Results of National League games last weekend caused considerable change in the positions of the teams still in the running for the league championship.

Detroit continued its dizzy clip by downing Milwaukee, 21-0, and took undisputed possession of first place with five victories, no defeats and two ties, for a perfect percentage.

Akron, which came east, tied with Detroit for the lead, dropped two games, one to Frankford and one to Pottsville, and tumbled down the ladder to drop into a tie with Providence for sixth place honors.

The Chicago Cardinals proved that they must be reckoned with in the race by tripping the great Green Bay eleven, 9-6, and assuming the position of runner up to Detroit, with six victories and one defeat.

Pottsville moved up into third place by downing the Akron team, 21-0. The Maroons now have won five games and dropped one, Providence having taken their measure early in the season.

Frankford dropped from its proud perch right behind the lead to fourth place when it split even, winning from Akron and dropping the Sunday game at Chicago. The Jackets are right on the heels of Pottsville, on half a game away, and a victory today will send them ahead of the iMners.

Green Bay, by losing to the Cardinals, dropped a rung on the ladder to fifth place, being passed by the Cardinals and Pottsville.

Providence is holding up its end in the East with four victories and no defeats, the Steamrollers downing Walter Koppisch's Buffalo squad 10-0 at Providence.

The New York Giants proved they have found themselves when they won their third consecutive league victory, this one at the expense of the downtrodden Columbus outfit, the final score being 19-0.

Canton reached the .500 mark in the averages by handing the champion Cleveland team its fourth defeat in six starts.

Frankford remains in the league race despite its two defeats because of the number of games on the schedule. The jackets will have to fight like fury from now on if they hope to annex the honors.

Cleveland, 1924 Titleholders, to Play Frankford Next Week

LARRY CONOVER AND FELLOW CHAMPIONS CERTAIN TO PROVIDE GREAT OPPOSITION FOR YELLOW JACKETS

Cleveland, with the title of 1924 champions of the National League proudly hanging to its belt, will invade Frankford next Saturday and another hair-raising game is expected.

All has not been well with Cleveland this year as far as winning the title is concerned, but the Indians have played great football, having the misfortune to be nosed out in several games.

Last Sunday Cleveland played Canton and after out-playing the Bulldogs for three and a half periods, saw the game stolen away when a pass was intercepted and converted into a touchdown.

The champs have a great array of individual stars and have played consistently good football, only to see the "break" take four games from them. Larry Conover, Atlantic City youth who gained All-American rating at Penn State, is back at center for the champs and going like a whirlwind.

Conover is one of the most colorful players in the league, having an uncanny knack of diagnosing the opposition's plays and being at the point of contact to meet the attack. He is just as good offensively as defensively.

The Cleveland players dispaired of winning the title again this year but they are fighting hard to get out of the rut and end up the season in a blaze of glory and victories that will carry them out of the second division and up among the leaders.

Brought down to earth by four defeats, the Indians are fighting hard to upset the dope and get back in the good graces of the Cleveland fans.

Pottsville Maroons Batter the Akron Tigers for a 21-0 Victory

ANTHRACITE CHAMPIONS DISPLAY GREAT POWER IN DOWNING INVADERS FROM OHIO

Pottsville continued its winning way in the league race last Sunday when the Maroons of the anthracite belt walloped the bewildered Akron Tigers for a goal—the final count being 21-0.

CHARLES BERRY

The game was played in a severe rainstorm and the fast Akron backfield was unable to get going, the heavy Pottsville forwards breaking through and mussing up the Tiger attack before it could begin to function properly.

The first touchdown was made in the initial period, getting the ball on its own thirty-yard line the Pottsville machine began a savage attack that carried the ball into Akron territory and culminated when Charley Berry, left end, caught a pass and romped over the line for the touchdown. Berry's catch was remarkable, the former Lafayette star grabbing the ball while surrounded by opponents.

Pottsville engineered another consistent advance in the second period, working the ball from midfield to the ten-yard line. Line plunges carried it to within three yards of the goal, and then Hoot Flanagan dove over the line for the six-pointer. Berry kicked the goal.

The final touchdown was made in the last period. Akron had the ball at midfield and tried to pass, Hathaway intercepting the effort and racing to the twenty-five yard line before being downed. Line plunges took the ball to the ten-yard line from which place Latone took it over.

Akron's big effort was in the second period when the Tigers took the pigskin to the Pottsville ten-yard line before the offensive was halted by the Maroons.

Stahlman and Barrett, of Akron, were injured so seriously during the game that both were taken to the Pottsville Hospital. The game was exceptional rough throughout, but clean.

Pottsville Invades Frankford With Fine Collection of Stars

HAVE GREAT LINE AND ERNST, LATONE, FLANAGAN AND WENTZ, MAKE POWERFUL BACKFIELD

Pottsville invades the stadium today to clash with the yellow Jackets in a game that will go a long way toward deciding supremacy in the East and may eliminate one of the teams as a contender for the league championship.

Frankford has a firm hold on Eastern honors at the present time with three victories and no defeats as its record against other Atlantic Seaboard teams. Frankford downed Providence and defeated the New York Giants twice.

Pottsville had played two eastern division games and split even, winning one and dropping one with the Providence Steamrollers furnishing the opposition in both games.

Pottsville crept ahead of Frankford in the league standing by dropping Akron last Sunday while the Jackets were being maltreated by the Bears. But the hold Pottsville has on third place is a slim one, being half a game advantage over Frankford, and a win for the home club today will again send them ahead of the Maroons.

The Frankford-Pottsville clash is a "natural," the teams being territorial rivals and natural gridiron foes. The Maroons come with a well-balanced team of veterans sporting a powerful offense and a great defense and the up-State fans are backing their team to win.

Russ Stein, Frankford captain last year, is playing a fine game with Pottsville at right tackle this season. Hathaway, who was Frankford's nemesis while playing with Dayton, is at the other tackle. Eddie Doyle, of Frankford and West Point, and Charley Berry, Lafayette, hold down the wing posts. Osborne and Racijs are guards, with Hughes at center and Herb Stein as reserve center.

Charley Ernst, of Lafayette, has been going great at quarterback. Hoot Flanagan, Pitt, and Tony Latone, Shenandoah, are the halfbacks with Barney Wentz, Penn State, fullback.

Joe Spagna Came from Florida to Play with Frankford Again

FORMER LEHIGH GUARD IS A VETERAN YELLOW JACKET WHOSE WORTH IS RECOGNIZED THROUGHOUT THE LEAGUE

A new comer on the Frankford team this week is the reliable Joe Spagna than whom few ever have made better reputations in professional ranks.

JOE SPAGNA

Spag played three years with Frankford and the boast of the former Lehigh guard is that he "never saw the sky" during that period, meaning he has yet to meet an opponent who could turn him upside down.

The return of Spagna to the Yellow Jacket lineup is a welcome addition to the squad and fortifies the team when injuries have slowed it down somewhat.

Joe was in Florida—and making heaps of dough according to all reports—when he received a cry for help from the Frankford management and returned to Philadelphia at once.

Spagna sorta looks upon Frankford in the same light he does upon Lehigh University. The local association is Joe's alma mater as far as professional football is concerned. He always gave Frankford his best, and his best is plenty.

Spagna is 6 feet, 2 inches tall and weighs 220 pounds. After leaving Lehigh Joe played with the Philadelphia Quakers but later transferred his allegiance to the Yellow Jackets and the big guard has played the best football of his career while arrayed in Yellow Jacket togs.

Joe thrives on work. Two games in two days constitute real pleasure to him. And his work on the second day always is on a plane with that of the first.

Spagna reported on Wednesday of this week and has worked out with the team each day since. So keen is his football sense that already he has grasped the fundamentals of the Chamberlain system and is ready for action.

Spagna is not the spectacular type that leaves his position to roam about the field. Rather his play is so steady and gains through his sector so few and far between that many overlook the sterling play of which he is master.

Welcome home, Joe!

History Repeats as Jackets Bow to Chicago Bears by 19-0 Score

CRIPPLED FRANKFORD TEAM UNABLE TO STEM FIERY ATTACK OF JOE STERNAMAN AND HIS MATES

History repeated itself at Chicago last Sunday, the Chicago Bears again taking a fall out of Frankford, the final figures of the game being 19-0.

The tilt was played in a driving snowstorm, with the home team holding a big advantage over the battered Frankford eleven, which hopped a train for the Windy City immediately following the game with Akron here.

Two touchdowns were scored by the Bears in the initial period of play. Joe Sternaman, as usual, was a tough egg for the Jackets to stop. His runback of a punt to Frankford's twenty-yard line set the stage for the first touchdown of the game, Walquist carrying the ball over. Joe kicked the goal.

Joe was conspicuous in the second touchdown, too. He heaved a thirty-yard pass to Mohart, the big halfback never stopping until he had crossed the line. The third and final touchdown was scored by Ed Sternaman after Mullen had placed the ball within scoring range by grabbing a pass from Sternaman. A pass, Mohart to Mullen, put the ball on the two-yard line and Ed Sternaman rushed it over.

The Jackets battled gamely but at no time appeared to have a real chance to overcome the big margin of the Bears. Guy Chamberlin, end and coach, and Charley Harms, right tackle, were unable to make the trip because of injuries received in the Akron game, and their absence hurt the play of the local eleven.

Chicago gets the victory, but the schedule should be credited with an assist. The pep and vim that carried Frankford to victory on Saturday was sapped out of the men by the game here and the long train ride to the western Metropolis.

Hamer was back at fullback and the former Penn captain gave a fine exhibition of football. Stockton, Sullivan, Fitzke and Homan, the other backs used in the game, fought hard throughout but were unable to stem the Chicago avalanche.

The defeat at Chicago dropped the Jackets from second to fourth place and allowed Green Bay and Pottsville to step ahead of Frankford in the league race, with Detroit continuing to head the procession.

Three Injured Frankford Stars Want to Play Against Pottsville

CHAMBERLAIN, HARMS AND CARTON, SUFFERING FROM SERIOUS
HURTS, DETERMINED TO SEE ACTION TODAY

The Yellow Jackets boast three of the fightingest cripples in the National League in the persons of Guy Chamberlain, Charley Harms and Charley Carton.

CHARLEY CARTON

Each of the three is suffering from injuries that would make football absolutely out of the question to players less determined, but each, against the orders of the club physician, has signified his determination to get into the game today.

Chamberlain sustained a dislocated shoulder in the game against the Akron team last Saturday. So severely was the big coach hurt that he was unable to accompany the team to Chicago on Sunday.

Guy has been walking around all week with his injured member strapped tightly to his chest. Unable to move his arm, still he has repeatedly signified his intention of playing against Pottsville.

Chamberlain believes that with the proper kind of a brace and protection he will be able to give a good account of himself.

The injury to Harms is just as acute as the one from which the coach is suffering. Harms sustained several torn ligaments in the Akron game and has been barely able to bend all week. Like Chamberlain, Harms was unable to accompany the team to Chicago and has been nursing his hurts all week in the hope of seeing action against the Maroons. Harms wants to be strapped up for action today.

Carton's injury is painful also. The former Holy Cross player is suffering from a charlie horse, and any person who ever was afflicted by that nemesis of the athlete knows that painful is the right word to use in describing it. Doc Ebling has been working overtime on the Falls of the Schuylkill player and Carton is ready.

The spirit shown by the three injured men has been communicated to the other players and Frankford today will field a team as full of fight and as determined to win as ever.

"Push It Over"

"Push It Over" is a frequent cry when our team is nearing the goal. The same could be used as a slogan in all worldly affairs—business, athletics, pleasure or when arranging an outing of old friends. It always takes team-work to "Push It Over." We, here in Northeast Philadelphia will use this slogan in supporting our Yellow Jackets. All Philadelphia residents should use it in strong support of the coming Sesqui-Centennial, an affair which will help to boost our city and keep us in the runnings. Are you giving the Sesqui-Centennial your hearty support? If not you should start now, and "Push It Over."

Frankford High Making Game Bid For Interscholastic Grid Crown

PIONEERS LEAD LEAGUE WITH 142 POINTS AND HAVE BEEN SCORED ON ONLY ONCE

While the Yellow Jackets are making a determined fight for the title in the National Professional League, the Frankford High School is putting up a stiff fight for honors in the Public High circuit.

The High School eleven has not been defeated this season, and West Philadelphia is the only team which has crossed its goal line. The Pioneers have displayed a fine scoring punch, leading the local high schools with 142 points.

Frankford opened the season with an overwhelming victory over Bryn Athyn Academy, bringing home the bacon by a 54-0 count. Haverford School, conquerors of Penn Charter, were met and defeated 7-0. Southern High was next in line, showing unexpected strength and holding the Pioneers to a 7-0 count.

The local high school broke out in a scoring humor against the Central High School eleven, giving that team the worst defeat in its long history on the gridiron, the final score being 49-0.

West Philadelphia was next in line. The Speedboys showed unexpected strength and scored first on the Pioneers, but the locals had sufficient reserve to finally annex the verdict by a 12-6 margin.

Northeast was taken into camp 13 to 0 on Armistice Day at the Yellow Jacket field before a crowd of 4000.

Germantown, the traditional rival of the tri-colored athletes, will be the final game on the schedule. Each year the game between Frankford and Germantown develops into a real battle, regardless of the standing of the teams, and this year the game, with the title probably depending upon it, should be better than ever. It will be played next Friday, November 20th at the Yellow Jacket stadium.

Captain Wynkeep plays fullback for the Pioneers and again appears in for all-scholastic honors. Joe Gardner, the elusive quarterback, is another who probably will make the "all" squad. Smailler and Snyder are two capable halfbacks, and Holden and Bennet are holding down the wingposts in great style.

Early Aerial Attack Enables the Yellow Jackets to Defeat Akron

INVADERS HUMBLLED AND TOPPLED FROM LEAGUE LEAD IN GREAT 17-7 CONTEST

The Akron eleven saw a lot of footballs flying through the air last Saturday but was unable to do much in the way of nabbing them so Frankford downed the then-league leaders 17 to 7.

Rae Crowther was the high scorer of the day. The Frankford wingman took two passes on the run and galloped over the intervening yardage for the two Yellow Jacket touchdowns.

The first one Rae grabbed was a pip and the former Colgate star gave the Jackets a lead about five minutes after the game began. Behman added to the lead by kicking the extra point.

Behman broke into the limelight again a bit later in the same period. Frankford rushed the ball to within striking distance, but the Akron defense stiffened and Behman dropped back to the twenty-yard line and booted a perfect placement goal.

Frankford's second touchdown and the final six-pointer of the day came in the second period. Crowther again was the scorer, this time catching a neat pass from Tex Hamer and running about eight yards for the tally. Behman made it a perfect day by kicking the extra point.

Seventeen points on the nut meant nothing to the team from Akron. They staged a great fight for the remainder of the fray, holding their own goal line safe and finally scoring a touchdown in the last quarter.

Fritz Pollard, the colored flash who gained All American rating at Brown several years ago, was the big noise in the attack of the Ohio invaders. Pollard has played against Frankford on other occasions, but he never flashed the form he showed last Saturday.

Playing halfback for Akron, he was a thorn in the side of the home defense, slicing off-tackle or around the end time after time for good gains.

Pollard also displayed fine form at throwing passes. It was his ground gaining ability and passing the ball on the Frankford one-yard line, from where Annan carried it over. Newman kicked the extra point.

Tex Hamer and Bob Fitzke played fine ball for the victors. A savage tackle of Pollard by Hamer saved the Frankford goal line at one stage of the game. Fitzke played the best game he has shone for the Jackets.

The entire Frankford line functioned well, playing its best ball when Akron menaced the goal line. Akron, too, had a well-drilled eleven, but the team from the Rubber City was never able to overcome the big handicap imposed when Frankford got off to an early lead.

BECAUSE organizations such as the Frankford Athletic Association tend to develop a closer bond of sympathy between the residents of the community, develop civic pride and advertise Frankford throughout the entire United States, we are pleased to be represented in this program.

MORNING

BOB REMMEY IN ARMY LINEUP

On Thanksgiving morning, Thursday, November 26th, Frankford Post 211, American Legion, will stage a very interesting football game at the Yellow Jacket's Stadium, Frankford Avenue and Devereaux Street. The match will be between the Army and Navy teams and all the players will be members of Frankford Post. Harry Jacoby will captain the Army, while the Navy will be led on the Gridiron by Howard Eisenbach.

"Bob" Remmey the well known star of the Frankford Yellow Jackets of several years ago, will again be seen in action with the Army team, and several of the other players on both teams will be remembered in this vicinity.

There will be no admission charge to the game, but a collection will be taken for the American Legion Endowment Fund which is being used for the war orphans and the disabled buddies. The game will be called promptly at 10 A. M. and everyone should attend and assist in this wonderful cause, besides witnessing a very good contest between the two everlasting rivals, the Army and the Navy.

QUESTION BOX MAINTAINED TO GIVE FANS PRO FOOTBALL IN- FORMATION

Write questions and suggestions on one side of paper and send to Marshall Bainbridge,
Jr., 4844 Frankford Avenue

Q. As an interested fan of the Yellow Jackets I have been reading the program weekly. I have noticed that almost every one of the players has had his picture in except Bill Hoffman and "Two Bits" Homan. Would it be possible to put a picture of each in? Also would it be possible to tell all about them?

What is the correct weight of Hoffman? What is the correct mailing address of the players? Is it true that Joe Spagna is back on the team? Is Spagna married?—T. L.

A. Homan and Hoffman will be in the program as soon as cuts of them can be obtained, probably next week. Hoffman weighs 203 pounds. Write to players care of Frankford A. A., Harrison and Duffield Streets, Frankford. Yes, Spagna is back, still unmarried.

Q. I would like to get a little information as to whether Herb Steen, semi-pro baseball player, ever played professional football with the Yellow Jackets during the season of 1923 or 1924, or whether it was Herb Stein, the well known player from Pittsburgh?—R. L. C.

A. No, Herb Steen, the Camden pitcher, never played with the Jackets. It was Herb Stein, All-American Pitt center now with Pottsville, who played here.

Q. I hear that Lou Hub is going to introduce our groundkeeper, Mr. Humphreys, into Shibe Park as an assistant groundkeeper next year. I am a Frankford fan of twenty years and would miss him, although I do think he would make good. Is it true?—A. L.

A. That is a matter Mr. Hub and Mr. Humphreys have under consideration. Even if Norm did go during the season I am certain that the American League could not pay him enough to make him neglect Frankford.

Q. A report was circulated around Frankford that the Yellow Jacket management and the two Chicago teams are bidding for the services of "Red" Grange and Earl Britton, of the Illinois team, for next year. Is the report true? If so, have they been landed?—W. B.

A. The report gained current circulation, but as far as is known there is no basis of fact for it. The management never announces players until all details have been completed and contracts signed.
