BANK IN POTTSVILLE

POTTSVILLE

is the centre of the Anthracite Coal Trade of the Lower Anthracite Field. Its surrounding territory is rich in minerals and form products. Its industries are successful, and its people prosperous.

The general prosperity of the City and its environs is reflected in its six strong banks, which have rendered unequalled banking service to the community for many year, and which have combined deposits of over $18,000,000.

With resources of over $21,300,000, the Banks of Pottsville are well prepared to handle your financial needs.

A GOOD FOOTBALL GAME

puts a keen edge on the appetite. Then the goal is POMEROY'S TEA ROOM. Noted for its good home-cooking, its oyster stews and its fried oysters. Open daily from 7:30 A. M. to 11 P. M. Closed Sunday. The other POMEROY TEA ROOMS at Pottstown, Wilkes-Barre and Reading are open Sunday.

POMEROY'S, POTTSVILLE

The Providence Steamrollers are looking forward to their league opening tilt with the New York Yankees on September 30. Conzelman is keying his eleven for this encounter, as Jimmy always likes to get off on the right foot.

The Pottsville Maroons will attempt to play three games in six days. On Election Day, November 6, the Miners meet the Giants in New York, while the following Saturday and Sunday they have a home and home series with Frankford.

Smith, the all-America pro center for the past two years, will perform with Providence this fall. Last season the classy snapper back passed the ball for Cleveland, while in 1926 he was the mainstay of the Kansas City crew.

Herb Joesting, Minnesota's all-American fullback, played with the Marines but he made only scant yardage through the Green Bay line. Joesting probably discovered that the pro game was a bit tougher than college brand.

Although the Duluth Eskimos are laying idle this year, many of their players will be seen in action with other elevens. Among the transfers is Halfback Fitzgibbon who has put his name on a Chicago Cardinal contract.

The New York Gaint management isn't doing any worrying about strength behind the line. In McBride and Hinkey Haines, Tim Mar's eleven has two of the best cowhide luggers performing in post-graduate gridiron circles.

The Frankford Yellowjackets figure they picked up a star in Hanson, giant linesman from Minnesota. This big Gopher hits the scales at 200 plus and is hard as a rock. He and Weir should give opponents plenty of grief.

Aside from the Bruins' duo, Conzelman, of Providence, and Lambeau, of Green Bay, are the veteran moguls. Conzelman has played with four clubs, while Lambeau has directed the Packers through eleven good seasons.

The New York Giants are not going to play a home game at the Polo Grounds until November 4. They open at Pottsville September 30, then make a western trip for three weeks before returning to Gotham to face the Pyle-men at the Yankee stadium.
