"RED" MALONEY
Dartmouth

This afternoon on this field, the champion Steam Roller eleven will swing into action against the Pottsville (Pa.) Maroons, one of the strongest teams in the National League. Lovers of the line battering game—those fans who like to see a 200-pound back rip through for gains of from 10 to 15 yards will get many a thrill from this engagement if Latone, who wrecked the Providence stone-wall many times in the contest one week ago at Pottsville, performs as valiantly in the return engagement.

The Maroons have a finely developed aerial attack as well and picked up great yardage by means of passes, tossed by Ernst, former Lafayette quarterback.

In the battle at Pottsville, the Maroons scored 15 first downs against five by the New England champions but were unable to crash through the giant Roller line when within the 10 and 15-yard zones.

Victory went to the Roller when Red Maloney scooped up a loose ball and spend 40 yards for the touchdown.

This contest promises to uncover one of the greatest fighting football matches of the entire campaign.

POLICY OF THE STEAM ROLLER FOOTBALL CLUB

Member of the National Football League

The policy of the Steam Roller Football Club, is to promote clean, healthful sport; to maintain for the City of Providence a football team that will be a leader in this great American out-door sport. This team is composed of American College stars and will have the leading football teams of the country as opponents. Our City will gain added publicity in supporting games that will attract nation-wide attention and be recognized as a promoter of clean sports and recreation.

APPROVED GROUND RULES

The following ground rules shall apply unless they be altered by mutual agreement of representatives of the two teams before the game.

1. A. A kickoff or free kick or any kicked ball not scoring a goal which crosses the goal line and goes into the stands or among the spectators shall count as a touch back.

B. A block kick which after being blocked crosses the kickers goal line and goes into the stands or among the spectators shall count as a safety.

C. A ball passed backward across the goal line which goes into the stands or among the spectators shall count as a safety.

2. A. A kick which goes over the side line fence or among the substitutes shall belong to the opponents at the point where the ball crosses the side line.

B. A fumbled ball which goes over the side line fence or among the substitutes shall belong to the side whose players last touched it in the field of play at the point where the ball crossed the side line.

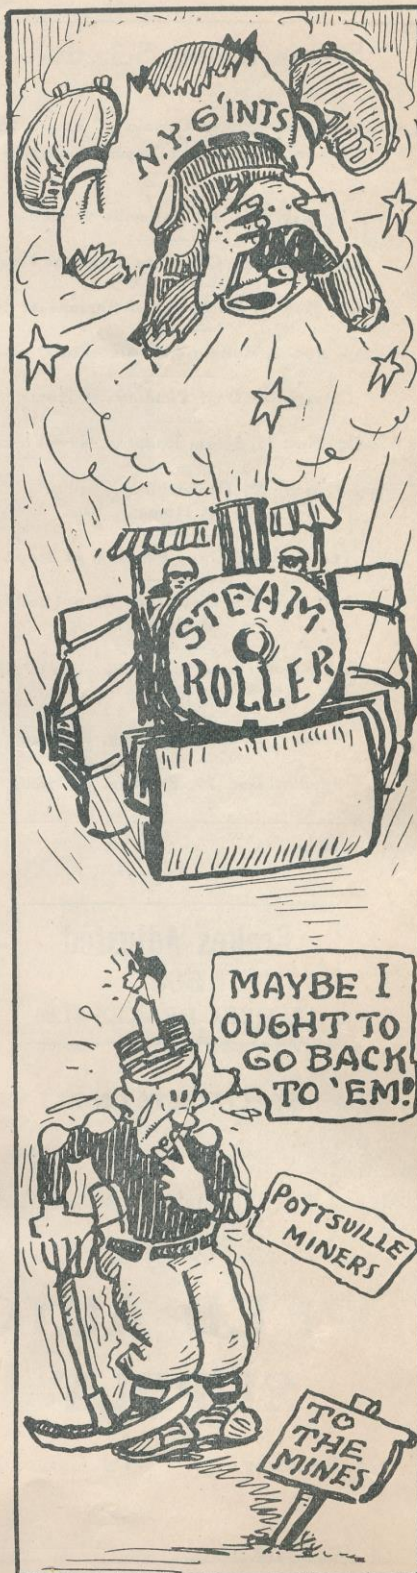

Note: This rule does not apply to forward passing.

C. If such fumbled ball shall have been last touched in the field of play simultaneously by opposing players it shall belong to the side that did not put it in play, or provided the fumble ensued from a kick, to the side which did not kick the ball.
