THE PACKERS—TOPS IN THE WEST

Four times the Green Bay Packers have won the National Football League title and the current edition of the Wisconsin eleven seems headed for another division title and perhaps the league crown if the New York Giants don't stop them next Sunday here in the Polo Grounds.

Both the Giants and Green Bay have won their last four games and each must win today's tough battle to stay in the race especially the New Yorkers to whom a defeat would be almost virtual elimination from the 1938 race unless the Bears handcuff the Redskins in Chicago today.

The Packers invade New York thirsting to revenge the 10 to 0 setback handed them here last year when they came into town boasting a nine game streak only to have the Giants knock them out of the title race.

No team in the west has shown the same consistent strength as the Packers this fall. They have a much stronger attack than a year ago and top the league in point getting. Cecil Isbell, who starred for Purdue last fall and this year played such a prominent role in the All-Star game, has been the sensation of the west. Isbell's running and especially his passing has done untold damage to opposing defenses and it is his tosses to Don Hutson which will make it tough for the Giants next week. Hutson tops the league's scorers with 56 points and has scored nine times on passes in as many games.

And unless you should think this is the only threat in the Green Bay attack don't overlook Clarke Hinkle, all-league fullback for the past two years whose hard running and excellent kicking has always been a factor in Giant-Green Bay tussles. Bob Monnett, no stranger either is having an exceptionally good year too with his slashing runs and accurate passes, while Joe Laws, Ed Jankowski, Andy Uram of Minnesota are dangerous. Of course Arnold "Flash" Herber is tossing those long passes and always a threat. He's beaten the Giants on many occasions.

The Packers boast one of the toughest

PACKER THREAT

and biggest lines in the National League and it will take some real charging by the Giants to move those Packers out of the path if they hope to advance the ball. Milt Gantenbein, on the end opposite Hutson, is an exceptional wingman and the rest of the forward wall measures up to him in ability and will probably outweigh the Giants ten pounds to the man from tackle to tackle especially when Baby Ray, who scales over 250 pounds, is in at right tackle as relief for Big Bill Lee, who starred for the Dodgers several years.

The Giants hopes of getting into the playoff game rest on a very slender thread. It will take a win over the Rams today and a victory over Green Bay to keep them up with the championship Redskins especially with that all-important tussle on Thanksgiving Day over at Ebbets Field as an additional stumbling block.

There is no need to remind you that the demand for tickets to the Green Bay game will be heavy so get your reserved seats early. The ticket sale opens next Tuesday, Nov. 15, in the office of the New York Giants, 11 West 42nd St. There is no advance in prices—Reserved seats, $2.20; Box seats, $3.30.

HUTSON TIES RECORD

Don Hutson, Green Bay Packers end from Alabama, has tied his own National Football League record of nine touchdowns in one season and is within striking distance of three other new league marks. By catching 12 passes for 120 yards and four touchdowns in his two remaining games against Detroit and New York, Hutson can set new standards for passes caught, scoring and yards gained on passes in addition to touchdowns in one season.

These marks are far from impossible. Hutson has twice scored three touchdowns, twice caught six passes, and four times gained over 60 yards in single games this season. Hutson leads the National League in scoring with nine touchdowns and two conversions for 56 points and by continuing his present pace will become the first lineman in league annals to lead in this department. Last year he caught nine against the Giants.

Four changes in positions for individual laurels were recorded in the past week. Clarke Hinkle, Green Bay fullback, jumped from a tie for third in scoring to second, behind his teammate Hutson, with 45 points. Scrapper Farrell, Brooklyn recruit, rose from fourth to second in ground gaining with 323 yards; just thirty less than Bill Shepberd, Detroit, who continues to lead with 353 yards. Ralph Kercheval, Brooklyn, tied Regis Monahan, Detroit, and Ward Cuff, New York, with four field goals, his 45-yard kick Sunday being the longest of the season.

Ed Danowski, New York, boosted his efficiency to 60% as he continued to pace the forward passers with 56 completions out of 93 tosses for 684 yards. Not more than three yards separate third, fourth and fifth place in ground gaining. Cecil Isbell, Green Bay; Farkas and Whizzer White, Pittsburgh, have 304, 303 and 301 yards, respectively.

GIANTS STILL BEST PASSERS

The New York Giants continue to lead the league in passing and for the second successive week has improved its efficiency. The Giants have now completed 69 out of 130 tosses for 53% efficiency. Washington is second, but dropped below the 50% mark for the first time this season with a record of 81 out of 169 for 47%. Green Bay is third with 75 out of 163 for 46%. The Chicago Cardinals have completed 99 passes, the most in the league.

The Chicago Bears overtook Washington for second place in scoring, 132 points to 126. Green Bay still has a 21-point a game average to lead in this department with a total of 192 points. There was no change in the ground-gaining leaders, headed by Washington with a 302 yard average, and followed by Green Bay and New York with averages of 264 and 259 yards, respectively.

Detroit has held opponents to 49 points, to share defensive honors with New York, whose opponents have gained an average of only 178 yards a game against it. Detroit's defensive average is in jeopardy next Sunday when they meet the high-scoring Green Bay Packers.

PRO RULES

There are differences in rules for games played in the National Football League and under intercollegiate rules. We would like to call your attention to these major differences:

1. The goal posts are on the goal line (not ten yards back).
2. Forward passes are permitted from any point to the line of scrimmage (not thrown from five yards behind line).
3. The penalty for a forward pass thrown beyond the line of scrimmage is loss of down and five yards from the spot such pass is made.
4. A forward pass on fourth down is not a touchback if it goes over the goal line providing the pass originated outside the 20-yard line. In other words if the pass was thrown from the 25-yard line on fourth down it reverts to the defending team at that point.
5. On a kickoff the receiving team is not required to have five players within five yards of the restraining line. Kickers are permitted to use tees in making kickoffs.
6. The penalty for clipping is 25 yards (not 15).
7. The ball is not dead when the runner touches the ground unless definitely in the grasp of an opponent and all forward progress stopped.
8. Substitutes may talk to teammates immediately on entering game.
9. Any two players of either team may re-enter the game once in the fourth quarter.
10. When a penalty is inflicted inside the 10-yard line it shall be only half the distance to the goal line.

SOAR, DANOWSKI STILL TOPS

Hank Soar and Ed Danowski continue to set the pace for the New York Giants in ground gaining and forward passing. Soar, by picking up 60 yards against the Cardinals, now has gained 276 yards, averaging just three yards per attempt.

Danowski has completed 56 passes to gain 684 yards in 93 attempts, and at that rate will break Sammy Baugh's record number of completions and his own efficiency mark.

The Leonard Grant Memorial

The New York Football Giants have established an annual trophy to be known as the Leonard Grant Memorial to be won outright by a schoolboy football player of the metropolitan area each year.

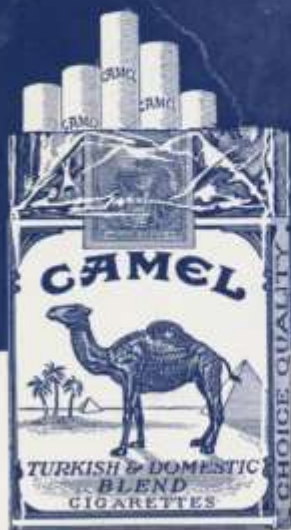

The competition between the halves today is for Westchester County schoolboys and the winner will qualify to compete in the final which is to be contested on Sunday, Dec. 4, when the championship Washington Redskins face the New York Giants.

Don Watson of Ridgefield Park, winner of the Jersey elimination, has turned in the best effort so far among the district trials. He booted one over 60 yards and the next best winning effort was turned in by John Barrattini of Textile, Manhattan victor, who kicked it 55 yards.

Next Sunday between the halves of the Green Bay-New York game the kickers from Bronx schools will compete. This will bring the Manhattan, Jersey, Brooklyn, Westchester and Bronx champions together on the final day.

The competitors and the order in which they will kick will be announced just prior to the start of today's contest.
