Bill Paschal, Giant of the Week With Touchdown against Steelers

BILL PASCHAL

GEORGE FRANCK

BILL PASCHAL is the Giant of the Week. And for a very satisfactory reason. It was William who carried over the touchdown which climaxed the winning 39-yard drive against the Pittsburgh Steelers last Sunday.

Of course, football is a game of eleven men, and rarely is it given to one man to achieve a victory all by himself.

So, while Paschal is the Giant of the Week, there are plenty of posies to be distributed to other members of the Polo Grounds cast, with some stress on Flinging Frankie Filchock, whose passes were so lethal against

FRANK FILCHOCK

Bill Dudley & Co., and George Franck, a pretty fair country runner.

THIS is Paschal's fourth season with the Giants. He came to them after a short college gridiron career with Georgia Tech. He is 24, weighs 200 and is a six footer.

Paschal took the National League ground gaining title in 1943 and 1944. The first year with 12 touchdowns and 572 yards, the next season with nine touchdowns and 737 yards.

Paschal was born in Atlanta, but now makes his home in New York. Married, and has two children.

The Approach to Perfection!

Football belongs largely to speed, brawn, brain and the unending desire to approach perfection, with the goal line as its reward.

Clothes by the modern Rogers Peet also express the approach to perfection.

Indeed, perfection is always uppermost in the mind of Rogers Peet's Master-Designer—perfection in fabric, style, tailoring and fit—perfection in clothes for young men, and men who never grow old.

Slinging Samuel Baugh and Redskin Associates Headed in this Direction

SAMUEL BAUGH
Master Passer

THE Washington Redskins are headed in this direction. Hang out storm signals, and get ready for a corking game, which will be of great importance—vitality in the Eastern National League fight.

Battles between the Giants and the Redskins never have been dead affairs. And this time the Giants are especially eager to win, partly because they suffered an early season 24-14 setback by the team from the capital.

Coming with the Washington machine is Slinging Samuel Baugh, who many experts rate the greatest passer football has developed. Some will have Sid Luckman, some will say Baugh. But until Sid comes back here, Sam will be quite sufficient to handle.

Giants Have Their Eyes On Big Playoff Here with Bears

GIANTS on top in the East, Bears on top in the West, and things apparently shaping up for a big National League championship playoff at the Polo Grounds. That was the situation as this afternoon's schedule got under way in the old circuit.

The Giants maintained their lead in the Eastern half last Sunday with a brilliant 7-0 victory over the Steelers, while the Bears had the Western title sewed up and were waiting for the Eastern picture to resolve itself.

It will be recollected that the Giants and the Bears met for the championship in 1933, 1934 and 1941.

Giants Compile Great Record Under Maras

COME to think of it, the Giants have compiled a remarkable record under the Maras. Tim Mara started the whole thing when he took over the club—against the advice of well wishers, who felt he would go broke—and after a lot of grief, put it over. Then came his son John and eventually another son, Wellington, got into the picture.

Under the coaching of Steve Owen and the ownership of the Maras, the Giants have maintained a spectacular record from year to year.

To be sure, there have been occasional dips, but, in the main, it has been a great organization.

PLEASE DON'T KNOCK ANYBODY DOWN getting to the exit, but at the nearest grill or night spot there's a little treat in store for you.

It's the bubble dance inside every sparkling drop of... but DON'T FLIP THIS PAGE... we've another secret to tell you. This titillating treat won't cost you one red cent more than the rather ordinary mixer you might get if you just look meek when you give your order.

SO WHY CHEAT that nice palate of yours out of a good time? Give it a break—let it utter: “—and Canada Dry Water” or “—and Canada Dry Ginger Ale, please.”

Pin-point carbonation, you know.

ON THE WAGON? “The Champagne of Ginger Ales” will make things a lot easier.

Facts on the Play-Off Game

In view of the many inquiries received regarding the play-off game should the Giants win the Eastern division championship of the National Football League, the New York Football Giants management wishes to make the following announcement.

In the event that the Eastern championship is decided today by a Giant victory and a Washington defeat the following procedure will be followed:

(1) Regular Giant Season Subscribers will secure their regular season seats for the play-off game by calling in person at the office of the New York Football Giants, 11 West 42nd Street, starting Thursday, December 5, 1946. (If a Subscriber does not wish to use his seats for this game the management would appreciate your notifying them to this effect without delay.)

(2) The general public sale of tickets for the play-off game will start Thursday, December 5th at the Giant Baseball office, 104 West 42nd Street. No public sale will take place at the Giant Football office.

If the Eastern championship is not decided until December 8th and should the Giants win the title on that day then this procedure will be followed:

(1) Regular Giant Season Subscribers will secure their regular season seats at the New York Football Giants office, 11 West 42nd Street, starting Monday, December 9, 1946.

(2) The general public sale of tickets will open at the Polo Grounds immediately after the game on Sunday, December 8th and on Monday, December 9th at the Giants Baseball office, 104 West 42nd Street.

STEVE OWEN

Giants and Rams Play Rubber Game in Fifth of Their Series

THERE are not many coaches who can maintain a winning edge over Stout Steve Owen of the Giants in National League competition. Owen's eminent soundness as a teacher and director was stressed last Sunday, when the Polo Grounders stopped the Steelers and Bill Dudley.

The Giants' battle with the Rams from Los Angeles today marks the fifth phase of a rivalry which has not lasted very long, but has been very vigorous, just the same.

It will be recollected that the Rams operated in Cleveland before they were shifted to Los Angeles this year.

The Rams and the Giants have split four games, so that this is the rubber game in their series. Here are the scores of previous meetings of these teams:

GIANTS vs. CLEVELAND RAMS

Giants Won 2—Lost 2

1938—Giants 28, Cleveland 0

1940—Cleveland 13, Giants 0

1941—Giants 49, Cleveland 14

1945—Cleveland 21, Giants 17

(Points—Giants, 94; Cleveland, 48)
