Major Frank Cavanaugh Memorial

No man contributed more to football than the late Major Frank Cavanaugh and next Sunday the game and its followers will have an opportunity to honor the memory of the former Fordham coach.

Through the cooperation of T. J. Mara and George Marshall, the New York Giants and Boston Redskins will play their regularly scheduled National Football League game as a tribute to Major Cavanaugh, whose career in football was largely spent about Boston and New York.

A generous portion of the proceeds of the game next Sunday will be turned over to Major Cavanaugh's large family as a concrete expression of appreciation, not only for his share in the progress of the game itself, but for the human qualities of courage and kindness that proved an inspiration to hundreds of boys under his charge.

SCHOOLBOY CONTESTS

The schoolboy dropkicking contests sponsored by the New York Football Giants will be held each Sunday between the halves. Today Westchester schools will be represented. Bob Greene of Bronxville, who recently dropkicked a 46-yard field goal against Pelham; Jack Moller of Mt. Vernon, Mike Latvis of Washington Irving (Tarrytown); Robert Connolly of New Rochelle; Harry Back of Yonkers Central and Warren Dearing of Port Chester are today's contestants.

Frank Goodel of Curtis, with 4 out of 5, won the first elimination. Martin Remore of Fort Lee, with a perfect record in five tries, took the second contest. The winners of these weekly contests, which are judged by Charles Brickley, former Harvard star, meet in the final on December 3 between the halves of the Giant-Pittsburgh game.

In all instances other than in the exceptions noted herein the rules of the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association are to be followed.

KICK-OFF AND FREE KICK

1. The receiving team may line in any position beyond the ten yard restraining line.
2. It is permissible for the kicking team to use a natural tee made from the soil in the immediate vicinity of the point of kick-off.

FLYING BLOCK AND TACKLE

The flying block and flying tackle are permitted.

FORWARD PASS

The passer may pass the ball from any point behind the line of scrimmage.

TIME OUT

Officials must notify the captain of each team when time has been out three (3) times—and no penalty is to be imposed for additional time out unless such notice has been given.

DEAD BALL

In Rule 7—Section 7—Article (1a) of the Intercollegiate rules omit the words “when any portion of his person except his hands or feet touches the ground.”

PERSONAL FOULS

Use of hands—in Rule 10—Section 2—Article 1—Item 2 of the Intercollegiate Rules, omit the words “players on defense may not strike the opponent on the head, neck, or face with the palms of their hands.”

CLIPPING

The penalty for clipping shall be 25 yards—officials shall enforce this rule to the letter.

GOAL POST

The goal posts shall be placed on the goal-line instead of ten yards beyond.

IT TAKES
HEALTHY NERVES
TO FLY THE MAIL
AT NIGHT!

● A. M. WILKINS has flown the night air mail over 150,000 miles for TWA. It takes healthy nerves to hang up a record like that!

● WILKINS joins a fellow pilot, W. Niedernhofer, at Newark Airport, for a chat and a smoke. "Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves," Wilkins says.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. They are milder, richer in flavor. They never tire your taste or get on your nerves.

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

A. M. WILKINS, air-mail ace, says: "It's a steady grind, all right, living up to our tradition that the mail must go through! That's why I smoke Camels. And I smoke plenty! Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves, and I like their mild, rich flavor."

Camels never tire the taste—never get on the nerves. Your taste and your nerves will confirm this. Start smoking Camels today and prove it for yourself.
