Foreword

THE NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS now enter their seventh consecutive season as representatives of New York City in the National Football League. This has only been made possible by the response of local football fans, who have concluded that professional football as played by the Giants and their fellow clubs in the League is REAL football. Since 1925, when the Giants first trotted out on the gridiron at the Polo Grounds, there has been a steady increase in the number of football followers in attendance.

The Management of the Giants appreciates the endorsement of their endeavors to provide good, clean football, however rough it may be in spots, due to the zeal displayed by players, and extends thanks to those who have contributed in any way toward the success of the Giants, and professional football in general.

HISTORIES — NEW YORK GIANTS

“TED” BUCKLIN—0

Bucklin joined the Giants while they were on their Western trip. Last season he was coach at the University of Idaho. Bucklin is not a newcomer in pro football. Played a couple of seasons ago with “Wildcat” Wilson in the then so-called Grange League. Good all around player.

“LES” CAYWOOD—4

“Les” is again with the Giants as he was for two consecutive previous years. He loves to play pro football. Before coming with the Giants he played with Detroit and Cleveland.

“MEL” HEIN—7—Center

When at Washington State College, “Mel” was named on almost every All-American team selected as either center or tackle. He weighs 205 pounds, and his defense specialty is intercepting forward passes. While at college he was an honor student.

“JOHNNY” KITZMILLER—13

“Johnny” was originally appointed to West Point. He played first at Tech High in Harrisburgh and then went west with Captain McEwan, now head coach at Holy Cross. While playing at Oregon U. he was known to the far west as “The Flying Dutchman.” His weight is 170 and he does everything a good back should do.

“HAPPY” MORAN—22—Back

“Happy” hails from Carnegie Tech and weighs 190 pounds. His ball-carrying featured his play last year, especially in the Green Bay game when he broke through for a sparkling 90-yard run. Since last season, he has sold oil and gas and has been a sailor from St. Louis to New York on a privately owned submarine chaser. He can also play end.

“SUNNY” MUNDAY—9

“Sunny” entered the pro football ranks for the first time this season. While he has had no previous pro experience, his many successful chances in the game should merit him recognition. He holds intercollegiate records as a hurdler and discus thrower.

“MICKEY” MURTAGH—2—Guard, Center

At Georgetown “Mickey” played guard under Lou Little on one of his great teams. Then he came to the Giants and has played every position in the line and played them all well. He now weighs close to 200 and lives at Rutherford, N. J. He says he is not bothered by the mosquitos.

“BILL” OWEN—36—Tackle

Weighing 205 pounds, “Bill” is the lighter of the Owen brothers. When not playing football, he is an undertaker although he also juggles oil barrels and plays baseball. He also plays the violin when his fingers aren’t sore from football. But above all, he is a fine tackle and a bulwark in the Giant line.

“STEVE” OWEN—55—Coach, Guard, Tackle

“Steve,” like his brother, comes from Phillips University and is well up in the 200-pound class with a weight of 235. And is he fast? If he wasn’t, how could he cover kicks the way he does? “Steve” has been in pro ball a long time and has always been considered one of the best tackles in the league. During the off season he sells coal and he says his coaching will not interfere with his playing if there is occasion for it.

“TWINKLE” SEDBROOK—14—Back

“Twink,” also known as “Dad,” weighs 170 and comes from Phillips U. He is a fine ball carrier and pass receiver and a good blocker. He too is a fireman when not playing football and maybe that’s what makes him so hot on the gridiron.

“RED” SMITH—5

Smith, in addition to his playing with the Giants is also coaching Seton Hall College over in South Orange. He has behind him four years of football at Notre Dame and before joining the Giants played with the Green Bay and Newark teams of the league.

“SAMMY” STEIN—23—End, Tackle

“Sammy” is a Hebrew and not a college man and is proud of both. The Giants liked his work with the “Stapes” so much that they traded “Tiny” Feather for him. Sam and the “Turtle,” both playing without helmets, make a colorful pair on the flanks for the Giants. He weighs 205.

“DOUG” WYCOFF—8

“Doug” is playing his sixth season in pro football. Prior to entering the pro ranks, he was All-American back at Georgia Tech. Was on the Championship Giants of 1927 after which he was featured with the “Stapes.” Returns to the Giants after having successfully accomplished his desires with the latter team.
