GAME

Here Next Sunday

Next Sunday is the day of days,
For GREEN BAY, with its winning ways,
Comes riding roughshod into town
Intent on slapping NEW YORK down.
Experts say this aggregation
Tops all teams throughout the nation;
It's true, at least, the Pro League race
Each season finds them in first place.
Their stars, like Hinkle, Blood and Nash,
Play football with such vim and dash,
'Twould seem no matter who their foe,
These lads just knock 'em for a row!
This year they haven't dropped a game,—
Here's wishing we could say the same!
However, when they play NEW YORK,
They'll meet a team that will uncork
A fighting spirit so unique,
I scarce can wait until next week!

SPECIAL NOTE.—National Football League games this season are played under the same rules that governed 1931 play with but two exceptions. Of the many changes made in the college rules only two proved acceptable to the professional circuit. One is that providing for substitutions every quarter instead of once a half. The other change was that in equipment making hard pads illegal. National League officials were of the opinion that the rules as they stood in 1931 needed no changes and felt also that football followers would like to see the code as it stood given a more thorough trial before extensive alterations.

My Song!

Each Fall my joy is without bounds
On Sundays at the Polo Grounds,
For when our FOOTBALL GIANTS play,—
Just try and keep this guy away!
Now, I've seen Harvard, near Back Bay,
I've hied myself to Ioway,
I've been down south to Tennessee,
I've seen a Rose Bowl jamboree;
In fact, I've been from coast to coast
And I'll insist that it's no boast
To say the games which most appealed
Were those played here on our pro field.
My roving football days are o'er,—
Most stars, I find, play at my door!
As I look through the haze of years,
That heap big Injun, Thorpe, appears;
Brick Muller, Nevers (Stanford's pride),
Then Hinkey Haines and Jack McBride;
Red Grange, Chris Cagle and Dutch Clark,—
Each one of these a football shark!
Too, Benny Friedman and Ken Strong,
But listing all would prove too long.
I'll tell the world I'll ne'er forget
That time the Yanks and GIANTS met
Upon a day which was replete
With slush and snow and blinding sleet.
I don't suppose I'll ever see
A contest waged more bitterly,
For there, upon a turf atrocious,
The play was what you'd call ferocious;
But what amazed me most of all
Was both teams' handling of the ball,
For during the entire fray
Not once did that ball slip away!
In League games only, you'll agree,
Does one find such proficiency.

YES, ON SUCH GAMES I REALLY DOTE,
SO PRO LEAGUE FOOTBALL GETS MY VOTE!
