WELLINGTON MARA

THE management of the New York football club, and every member of the Giant personnel, wish to thank the fans of New York for their splendid support this past season. "Splendid" really is an understatement. The fans have been magnificent.

Without this fan loyalty, without this continued outpouring of patrons in spite of obvious letdowns in football skills, the Giants,—the entire National Football League,—would have found it impossible to carry on in this war year.

The management would have liked to give New York fans a more resplendent type of team. It would have liked to carry on in the old Giant manner. But every patron of the game appreciates that those who conduct the affairs of the football club, and coach its personnel, have done their very best. Their utmost. And that utmost has been amazingly good, hasn't it?

The players have gained a tremendous inspiration from the fans.

Because of the fine support, the New York club has been able to entertain many thousands of service men as its guests every week at the Polo Grounds.

Because of the big turnouts, many local charity causes have been aided through the sale of tickets. In this feature, the Giants have been outstanding in professional football.

The management thanks you. And please, come back!

Where Skill really Counts . . .

It takes more than a football suit to make a star half-back . . . and it takes more than a distilling plant to make a truly great whiskey like Seagram's 7 Crown.

Yes . . . and it takes even more than treasured reserves of many different fine whiskeys . . . even more than ample stocks of genuine neutral grain spirits. Most of all, it takes skill, and craftsmanship, and experience, to achieve the exquisite flavor and bouquet and mellow lightness of Seagram's 7 Crown to keep its rare excellence unchanged in wartime.

Today, as always, Seagram's 7 Crown is one of the world's great whiskeys . . . every drop 100% pre-war quality. True, it's scarcer now than usual . . . but there's still enough for you to enjoy in moderation. Sip it slowly . . . savor its excellence . . . and be thankful that Seagram's 7 Crown is still to be had!

This is Mel Hein Day!

Tribute to Grand Star

MEL Hein, veteran centre of the Giants, is 35 years of age. In normal times, Mel would be turning out fine football players at Union University in Schenectady. As you know, Mel retired a couple of years ago, to devote his time to college coaching and athletic supervision. At least, he thought he had retired. The war came along, Union could not field a football team, and Mel had to return to his line play with the Giants.

Mel Hein is 35, and this is his fourteenth season with the New York club, which he joined after having achieved All-America distinction at Washington State.

Fourteen years of professional play. And he is as good as ever. Last Sunday, in the tough battle with Brooklyn, Hein played 60 minutes of football. The week before, in the great victory over the Packers, he played 56 minutes. The week before that, 60 minutes in the thriller with the Eagles.

Four minutes out in three hard games, for a man at the age of 35.

This, then, is Mel Hein Day. This, then, is a tribute to the most amazing football player the game yet has seen.

HERE'S JUST WHAT YOU'VE BEEN LOOKING FOR!

Been looking for a cigarette that hasn't let down on flavor? Then Raleigh is your answer! For Raleighs are still made from fully aged, golden domestic leaf, blended with rich, aromatic Turkish tobaccos from ample stocks of vintages that are now irreplaceable.

Yes, and Raleighs are double-fresh too. They're kept that way by the best known moistening ingredient, and by an exclusive laminated inner wrap. Get fresher Raleighs today—they taste better naturally! Quality is never rationed in a Raleigh.

Lieut. Al Blozis May Finish Season on New York Line

LAST Sunday, when the Giants beat the Brooklyn Tigers, Lieut. Al Blozis, on furlough from the Army, got into action for the New York club. His return to the Owen line was a surprise. For the Polo Grounds fans, it was a pleasant one. For Big Al never has played a bad game of football in his career.

The Giants have taken the liberty to place the name of Lieut. Blozis on their player roster for today. They hope he will find it possible to be with them right through the rest of the New York club's season.

Lieut. Blozis makes a vast difference on the Giant line. He has size, weight, skill, authority, —and great fan appeal.

Filchock One of Football Season's Standout Surprises

FRANK FILCHOCK

SAMMY BAUGH

HERE with the Redskins today is Frankie Filchock, who is one of the pleasant surprises of the National League season. Frank was supposed to be out this year. But he came back, and gave to the Washington club a passer second only to the one and only Samuel Baugh.

The Giants play the Redskins again next week, in the capital, and the way things shape up, it may be that there will have to be an Eastern playoff before there is an East-West title scrap.

The Redskins this season went for the T-formation. The great Shaughnessy, leading T exponent among college coaches, helped Doug De Groot establish that formation on the Washington club. It has helped Filchock tremendously.

Giants Have Their Eyes On National League Title

Steve Owen, Tuffy Leemans and Red Smith, the Boss of the Giants, and two assistant coaches.

THE schedule of the National Football League says that the Giants are closing their home season today, with the Washington Redskins.

The Giants say, "Pay no attention to that schedule. We are coming back here to tackle the Packers for the pro championship."

And you know the Miracle Man of the National League, Stout Steve Owen. He says, "I predict nothing. But, keep your eye on the Giants, because they have their eyes on the championship. And they can do it."

The Giants tied Philadelphia for the Eastern division lead last Sunday, when they beat Brooklyn, 7 to 0, while the Eagles were being whipped by the Bears, 28 to 7.

The Giants play the Redskins again, in Washington, next Sunday. All sorts of complications are possible. But watch out for the Giants. They are in no mood to take "NO" for an answer!
