NEWTON, Iowa — Gerald "Bud" Hendershot, 82, died on Thursday, March 28, 2013, at Skiff Medical Center under the care of Skiff Hospice in Newton.

Memorials may be designated to the Jasper County Animal Rescue League and Humane Society or to the Park Centre Good Samaritan Fund and may be left at the funeral home.

Mr. Hendershot was born June 18, 1930, in Red Oak, Iowa, the son of Gerald G., Sr. and Gayle Covert Hendershot. He graduated from the Centerville High School and attended the Centerville Junior College and Drake University.

On Feb. 20, 1954, Bud was united in marriage with Ella J. Cathcart at the First United Methodist Church in Newton.

He worked as an accountant managing the accounting department of the Vernon Co. from 1953–93.

Bud was a member of St. Luke United Methodist Church, the Vernon Management Club, American Accounting Association, and the Isaac Walton League. He enjoyed fishing, boating, cooking, and being with family and friends. Bud and Ella moved to Park Centre in Newton in 2007.

Those left to honor Bud's memory include his wife, Ella of Newton; his daughters, Ann (Brian) Buch of Newton and Lynn (Tony) Trease of Birmingham, Mich.; his five grandchildren and three great grandchildren; his brothers and sister, Jack (Joan) Hendershot of Waterloo and Ft. Myers, Fla.; Jane (Lauren) Fisher of Wapello; Julia (Ed) Shirley of Centerville; and Nancy (George) Ryan of Newton; and his many nieces and nephews.

Bud was preceded in death by his grandparents, his parents, and two brothers-in-law and one sister-in-law.
