STARTED AT COMMERCIAL HIGH SCHOOL, BROOKLYN, CONTINUED AT SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY, AND IS NOW
CAPTAIN BROOKLYN "LIONS"—NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

President-Manager "Eddie" Butler and
Coach "Punk" Berryman, Brooklyn "Lions"

The Brooklyn "Lions," representatives of Brooklyn, in the National Professional Football League, bids fair to have one of the best professional teams in the country. After an early setback by the Providence Steam Rollers at Providence on Sunday, September 26th, the "Lions," under the coaching of Robert "Punk" Berryman, who formerly coached at Iowa State College, Colgate and the Philadelphia Yellow Jackets, have improved at great strides.

Edmund ("Eddie") W. Butler, the President-Manager, a local boy who started his football at Poly Prep and later at Cornell, is determined that Brooklyn will have a truly representative team and has spared no expense in his endeavors to do so.

Local athletes who received their football experience in Brooklyn high schools and continued it through college, predominate in the line up of the "Lions."

Bill Stephens of Manual Training and then Brown University.

Bob Morris of Erasmus and then Cornell.

Captain Paul Jappe of Commercial, now Alexander Hamilton, and then Syracuse.

Al Leith of Erasmus and then University of Pennsylvania.

Rex Thomas, who starred with St. John's College last year.

Axel McCulloch of Brooklyn Prep and then Holy Cross.

Dick McGrath of St. John's Prep and then Holy Cross.

Charley Weber of Manual Training and then Colgate.

Quent Reynolds of Manual Training and then Brown.

Ted Plumridge, who last year captained the St. John's College Team.

Brooklyn Football followers will see in action at Ebbets Field this year some of the greatest football players in the country

Pottsville, who plays here Saturday, October 16th, boasts of four All-American men, including Jim Welsh, 280-pound guard from Colgate, Herb Stein, center from Pittsburgh; Berry, end from Lafayette; Flanagan, half-back from Pittsburgh. Last year Pottsville won the title in the National League.

Later on in the season football lovers may feast their eyes on the Pacific Coast wonder football player "Brick Muller," now playing with the Los Angeles team, and "Ernie" Nevers, who plays with the Duluth "Eskimos."

In the opinion of football experts, the "Lions" possess two of the fastest backs in the country in "Rex" Thomas and "Bag" Bagby and the greatest defensive back in George Snell.
