The Frankford Yellow Jackets were scheduled to play the Staten Island Stapletons on Dec. 5, 1926 but the game was canceled due to snow.

On the day before, Dec. 4, Frankford had won a bruising game against the Chicago Bears and edged ahead of them to win the 1926 NFL Championship.

All I have is the first page of the scorecard for the Dec. 5 game, but it does show the Stapleton lineup.
