Wessington-Reds, Combination of Two Old Local Clubs, Out To Give Real Football

The 1936 Wessington-Reds, heavy professional football eleven representing this section, is a combination of two old football organizations, the Wessington A. C., of Clifton, and the Red Devils, of Passaic.

The Wessingtons organized more than 25 years ago were first prominent in the baseball world, but since 1927 the club has sponsored one the strongest football teams in these parts. To support its fine team, the organization had the Wessington Stadium in Main Avenue, Clifton, built. The team was undefeated, except by National League clubs, from 1927 to 1933.

The Passaic Red Devils were formed in 1929. They enjoyed their best year in 1933, when they won the State Football, Interstate League, and Eastern League championships. In 1934 the team also came through to win the State title.

For the best interest of the game and in order that the best in football may be given the public in Passaic and Clifton and vicinity, these two clubs merged this season, and the combined team is being backed by Joseph Rosentover, prominent Passaic sportsman, and Fred Marchini and Albert Vischia, popular Cliftonites.

The Wessington-Reds are members of the American Professional Football Association, of which Mr. Rosentover is the president. Others members of this group are: Patersons Panthers, Orange Tornadoes, Stapleton Bears, Bay Parkways, New Rochelle Bulldogs, white Plains, and Mt. Vernon.

HOW DOES A PILL KNOW WHERE TO GO?

When you take medicine, it goes everywhere, so some is bound to reach the right spot.

Your problem is to know where to go for your medicine. That's why we keep reminding you of our prescription department.

Here only the freshest, finest drugs are used. Here each prescription is compounded with skill and care. Here, too, a registered pharmacist is always on duty.

Your doctor will tell you this is a dependable place to bring your next prescription.

Frank Mitrick, Wessie-Reds Mainstay In Backfield, An Ace Line-Plunger

Frank Mitrick, who sports the No. 2 jersey on the Wessington-Reds football team, is one of the mainstays on the local eleven. His excellent line-plunging has earned for him the reputation of being one of the best backs on the team. If you don't think he is an ace plunger, just look at his legs, say his teammates. Frank has a pair of the sturdiest legs in the sport.

Mitrick is from Chicago, and attended Ogelthorpe University way down South, where he worked his way through school for four years. While there he did some stellar football playing, being a first string man for the whole four seasons.

He is now studying medicine.

After playing eight games with the Brooklyn Dodgers last year, Frank finished up the season with the Wessingtons. He enjoyed playing with the local outfit so much that he is back again this season.
